Not my John, Dolly

Dear Mrs. Latimer:

I am sending you the initial results of my research into your John Crum Leach (1827-1905). I still have some unanswered requests, but since they may not arrive for some time I decided to send you what I do have on hand.

We have located the 1880 census record for John Crum Leach. You did not have this, only the 1870 and 1900. In the 1880 census, someone stated that both of his parents were born in New Hampshire. This does not agree with the 1900 data where the father was said to have been born in NH and the mother in VT. It's anybody's guess as to what is correct!?

I sent a request to the Sargent Co, ND, Clerk of District Court for possible probate records for John Crum Leach, and they responded that there are none on file. That same county has apparently also been saying that there is no death record on file for him. Are you sure that he died in Sargent Co, ND? Perhaps he died not owning much, hence the reason for no probate records? Have you also checked for possible deeds for him in Sargent Co? If not, this should be done.

I have sent requests to the Town Clerk of Burlington, VT, and the County Clerk of Chittenden Co, VT, asking them if they have a marriage record on file for John Crum Leach to Mary C. Green. Neither have responded yet. I'll send you their responses later. I have also sent a request to the Forman, ND, Public Library (assuming that one does exist ?) asking them for a possible newspaper obituary for John Crum Leach who died in Havana, ND, on 12 Aug 1905. Forman is the county seat of Sargent Co, ND. I'll send this response to you later.

- over please -

Your John Crum Leach was apparently born in 1827 in either VT or NY. NY seems more likely to me based upon the census data. There were quite a few Leaches listed in the 1830 NY census index (see enclosed copy), but not as many as I thought. It would be wise to examine all of these 1830 NY Leach families to see which ones had young males present, under the age of 5, one of whom might be your John Crum Leach. By doing this, many of the possibilities could be eliminated. Do you know if John Crum Leach had any brothers or sisters. This could be very important, especially in searcing the 1850 census records.

I previously suggested that John Crum Leach's mother's maiden name might have been Crum. Whoever she was, she was apparently born in VT according to the 1880 and 1900 census data for John Crum Leach. There were no Crums in VT as of 1830, just two Crumbs (see enclosed copies of 1830 VT census index). There were quite a few Crums and Crumbs in NY as of 1830 (see enclosed copies of the 1830 NY census index). I don't believe this is worth pursuing at the moment. Too vague.

I will be happy to keep working on this if you wish. I will await your reply before doing anything further. Thanks and best regards.

Respectfully,

WLP

John Leaches serving as Grantors in Onondaga Co, NY:

I would suggest that we order the following deeds:

GRANTORS

M: 93 (1812) John & Clarindy Leach to J. Burges
U: 13 (1818) John & Clarindy Leach to D. Nichols
V: 48 (1818) John Leach to P. Hayden

II: 12 (1826 ?) " to P. Porter
LL: 442 (1828) John Leach Jr to J. A. Hotchkiss

XX: 105 (1832) " " to D. Cody
ZZ: 397 (1833) John Leach Jr & Albro Leach to S. D. Richter and all the other deeds listed in the index that involve a John Leach through 1840.
also: (some selected ones after 1840)
93: 295 (1847) John & Nancy Leach to A. Leach
101: 471 (1850) widow of John Leach to H. Johnson

It would be a monumental task, but I think it would be wise to examine all the Leaches in the 1850 NY and VT census records to see which families have a son present named John Crum Leach who was born in 1827. I don't have the time to do this. I could ask a fellow researcher to do it for us, or you may want to do this. Please advise.

- over please -

I asked my contact in Salt Lake City, Mr. Shupe, to explore some Onondaga Co, NY, records for us (see enclosed correspondence). I was particularly interested in learning more about the John Leach Jr & Sr in that county who you thought might have been related to your John Crum Leach. Unfortunately, there do not seem to be any probate records on file in Onondaga Co, NY, for someone named John Leach. Mr. Shupe only checked the period of 1796-1834, however. This search for possible probate records needs to be expanded. He needs to check the general probate index, 1802-1923, for John Leach entries. For some reason, this was temporarily not available to him.

Mr. Shupe did send us the deed entries for persons named Leach in Onondaga Co, NY, for the period of 1794-1870 (see enclosed copies). As you can see, there were many different Leaches active in that county, to include many entries for John Leaches. I would suggest that we order the following John Leach deeds: (if you would like some others also ordered, please advise)

F: 164 (1806) D. Hobby Jr to John Leach
DD: 456 (1824) J. Williams to John Leach
PP: 244 (1829) J. N. Quackenbush(?) to John Leach Jr
UU: 225 (1831) G. Weaver to John & Albroe Leach
UU: 388 (1831) W. F. Shepard to John Leach Jr
UU: 389 (1831) B. C___?___ to John Leach Jr
VV: 271 (1831) M. Hotchkiss to John Leach Jr
XX: 442 (1832) C. Nukerck to John Leach
XX: 443 (1832) J. Kinne to John Leach
52: 142 (1833) J. Anderson to John Leach Jr
54: 6 (1834) S. Warren to John Leach Jr et al (and others)
55: 167 (1834) F. B. Tuttle to John Leach Jr
55: 403 (1834) J. Emmons Jr to John Leach Jr

Dear Mrs. Latimer:

I have been reviewing the John Crum Leach material that you sent to me and I have several questions and comments to present to you.

1) Please send a copy or a reference to the 1855 Wisc state census in which John supposedly appeared.

2) You have apparently not been able to locate John in the 1850 census records, state unknown. If he did marry in 1854, he may have still been residing with his parents, or someone else, as of 1850. You seem to have searched various states fairly well for a possible 1850 census record for John. I usually like to do this myself, and may repeat some of your efforts in this area.

3) Why do you think he may have married in VT ca.1854? As a general observation, young couples usually marry in the county/state in which the bride's parents are residing, and often the groom's parents as well. Rufus Green, Mary's father, seems to have been dead by 1850 because we find his widow, Betsy, with one of her sons out in Wisc. Where did Rufus die, and when? Maybe Mary remained in VT for awhile and married there before they went westward? Have you thoroughly explored VT marriage records for John Crum Leach to Mary C. Green?

- over please -

4) John's middle name of "Crum" will probably prove to be his mother's maiden name.

5) the state of ND should have had a death certificate on file for John (d.1905) because they started to keep such records as of 1893 onward. You have apparently tried twice with no luck to secure such a record. I would guess that they have it, but it is probably mis-filed due to improper interpretation of the old script. In other words, they have probably misspelled the surname of Leach and have it filed under Luck, or something. Have you also sent such a request to Sarget Co, ND? If not, this should be done. They should have a duplicate copy of the death cert. on file.

6) do you have Mary (Green) Leach's death cert.? If so, I'd like to see a copy. If not, this should be ordered.

7) Do you have the death certs. for all 3 chd, Wm, Hattie and Edward? If not, these should be ordered. They may list the specific birthplaces of the parents!

8) You do not seem to have the 1880 census record for John Crum Leach and family. This should be located and I can coordinate this search. This census will also say where the parents were born, and it would be interesting to see if it agrees with the 1900 census data.

9) have you pursued the John Leach Jr & Sr who appeared in the 1830 Onondaga Co, NY, census records? If not, this should be done. Deeds and possible probate records for these men should be checked for. Hopefully they remained there? If not, deeds might tell us where they went, or when they left.

I think I will await your reply before doing anything further. If you have not done all of the above, I will be happy to do it for you. Thanks and best regards.

Respectfully,.

Dear Cousin Hattie

I recd your letter a long long time ago and I have been very naughty not to answer it before. but I hope you will forgive me if I say I will do so again. and I will try not to.

I hear you got the first prize in your reading class did you. Well I guess you could beat me reading. it is so long since I have read any aloud that I have almost forgotten how. I do not read much of any thing now but the newspapers. What do you suppose I do all the time to keep me so busy. well I have to go to the Post Office four times a day and then I have to write a good deal and then I have see that the irishmen that we keep to do the hard work work good and tell them what to do and I have to see that all the things in the warehouse all the barrells and hogsheads of sugar and molasses and salt and vinegar and oil and fish and pork and everything is kept in their proper places and in good order and then and then I have to go all around town once a month collecting. that is getting money from folks that owe us.

How would you like to live here with me. where you could have all the sugar you could eat. and then when ~~you~~ I got through work at night we could go to the theatre or a concert and see so many people all dressed up in style and hear the music and see peoples dressed all sorts of funny ways acting (and I have seen some ladies that looked as if they were not dressed much of any at all). There is a little girl just about your age. a very pretty little girl ~~with~~ except that she is quite lame, with long curls and blue eyes.

that ~~bon~~ comes into the store every little while and she generally goes the first thing and gets Mr Pecks paper cutter and goes to the sample boxes of Sugar. and goes to putting down the sugar at a great rate. she will take a taste of first one kind and then another and so on and then she commences over again. she seems to be trying to find out which she likes best but she dont seem to ~~succeed~~ succeed very well. and then she will take out a little sugar and do them up and take them to Mr Pecks desk~~s~~ and try to sell them to him. and sometimes he will buy them of her and pay her what she wants for them and then she will generally go out and buy some candy or [illegible] nuts or something else with it. she is a piece of Mr Pecks: and as he has no children of his own I suppose he thinks a good deal of hers.

Well I have written you a long long letter and I suppose you ~~would~~ will get very tired before you get it all read. if indeed you can read it all it is so poorly written. so I will close. I want you to write a long letter to me very soon. and I want you kiss Eddie and Willie and Mama an papa and Grandma for me. and remember. Eddie first because he is my boy. and dont forget to write to

I've been very ill since Sept. 10th. A head cold turned into bronchitis & I had to take an antibiotic. I had a severe allergic reaction to that medication & it caused blisters all over my body, along with a circulation problem in my right leg. I had an ultrasound to see if there is a blood clot but there isn't, so I'm taking Ibuprofren at 800mg to kill the pain in the leg. I still can't bend at the knee either. For the blisters, I have to take Benadryl in order to prevent anymore from spreading. For those that are already on my body, I have to be very careful because if they break open, that makes me susceptible to bacterial infection. I'm keeping Neosporin on hand & will have to bandage any open sores. This whole thing has been a nightmare. I'm walking around in a fog most of the time because both the Ibuprofen & Benadryl cause drowsiness.

I'm still trying out [illegible] Wednesday [illegible] because [illegible] didn't pay the [illegible] want to get away anyway.

Hi Betty,

John Leach was found in Hillcrest Cemetery, Parishville, NY. Age 47, died Feb. 2, 1840. No listing of any wife.
He is buried with a bunch of Brownell family members. I copied the page from microfilm so you'll be able to see all of them. I found David & family & also Silas & his wife but will just hand over the paperwork when I see you & Ed. All of the microfilms were looked at but there was no actual will filmed for David. Nothing on Rufus Greene or John Leach.
I still have to translate the 1845 census for Hopkinton & will get that done before I leave. It looks like John Crum Leach was living with David Leach at that time. He is not named but a male of his age is living there & David only had female children, so it must be John.

I've been very ill since Sept. 10th. A head cold turned into bronchitis & I had to take an antiobiotic. I had a severe allergic reaction to that medication & it caused blisters all over my body, along with a circulation problem in my right leg. I had an ultrasound to see if there is a blood clot but there isn't, so I'm taking Ibuprofren at 800mg to kill the pain in that leg. I still can't bend at the knee either. For the blisters, I have to take Benedryl in order to prevent anymore from sprouting. For those that are already on my body, I have to be very careful because if they break open, that makes me suseptible to bacterial infection. I'm keeping Neosporin on hand & will have to bandage any open sores. This entire ordeal has been a nightmare. I'm walking around in a fog most of the time because both the Ibuprofen & Benedryl cause drowsiness.

I'm still flying out next Wednesday in spite of my problems because Tara didn't pay the insurance cost for a cancelled trip and I want to get away anyway.

Hi Betty,

I've looked at 7 of the microfilms so far. Last week at the family history center was a busy one with every microfilm reader occupied & even the microfilm printer. To cap my findings so far, here goes:

1. Film# 1901555 Item 5; Cemeteries of St. Lawrence Co, NY; Town of Hopkinton, misc. headstone listings (found nothing)

2. Film# 556598 Item 2; Births, Marriages, Deaths, St. Law. Co., NY, 1847-1849 (Found nothing)

3. Film # 890040; Probate Recs., 1830-1919; Index of wills & proceedings, A-M, 1830-1955; (found David Leach & his wife Mary & will now need to look at the actual wills on another microfilm. If they can be printed, I'll do that)

4. Film# 890045; Letters of Testamentary & Administration, v.1, 1831-1842 (found nothing)

5. Film# 890046; Letters of Testamentary & Administration, v.2-3, 1842-1860 (found nothing)

6. Film# 890057, Letters of Guardianship, v.1-2, 1830-1861 (nothing for John Crum Leach or any Leach)

7. Film# 1311929 item 7; Census for the year 1845, town of Hopkinton; (found Rufus Greene & his information fills 3 pages I believe. I didn't have access to the printer that day but will try to print it out today. It covers all of his farm/agricultural information)

Five more films to go.

I found this on Joe Flint, grandson of Royce Howes:

Hi Sandy:

It's good to be back in Colorado. It was an 1,100 mile trip, but it seemed longer. There really isn't much to see in Wyoming on I-25. When we crossed the Continental Divide we found that the Divide is only 93 feet higher than Castle Rock. We're 6,300 and the Divide was 6,393.

I haven't done much since returning home (except resting), but I have been going through folders to determine what will go into the notebooks. I guess I need to put the vital records in their covers first thing.

I will look through the Chandler pictures to find Lulu's picture. I have to call Jane Flint again. I will try to reach her again today or tomorrow. She really isn't very well, I guess. She has serious eye problems, but she did know her grandmother when she was a grown woman. Apparently, Dorothy, put her mother in a place in Wayne Co., Michigan, (Detroit area) called Eloise. Lulu did not live with her daughter, Dorothy & her husband, Royce ?sp Howes, until Jane was married and had 3 children (I think I'm right.) Vera Chandler Leach died in 1932 before Jane Flint was born. Jane knew that she had cousins, but she didn't know who or where they were. She said her brother, Geoff, didn't know about the cousins at all; and, I guess, he was really surprised (shocked) when Sally called him. Jane seemed to say that her mother told her children nothing about her sister's tragic death, her five children, or anything.

It seems to me that Dorothy did not come out of this family tragedy as a very nice person. Jane, also, said that her paternal grandmother lived with them and that Lulu didn't live with her parents until her other grandmother died.

Royce Howes worked for a newspaper. I have to check my old records, but I remember he won a prize, a Pulitizer, I think. He, also, wrote books. I believe they were novels. I'll ask Jane more about it.

I makes me feel very sad to recount this sorry tale. So many people were hurt. Apparently, Lulu spent almost 30 years in Eloise. Jane seemed to say that her mother made an effort to conceal where her mother was living.

Maybe I should have asked Jane if I could pass this info on to you; however, she never asked for any information to be confidential. . .

Clinton, IA 52732-2534

Ladies & Gentlemen:

We have been researching our families for several years, and we found that most of my husband's maternal lines lived in Clinton and/or Camanche area for many years.

Four of his great great grandparents and two great grandparents lived in the Clinton for from 30 to 50 years.

We would like to obtain copies of their probate records if they are available.

They are as follows:

William M. Chandler, born 27 June 1841, NY, died 18 March 1893, Clinton, IA, buried in Camanche Cemetery.

Roxanna Russell Chandler, born 24 June 1840, NY, died 19 October 1894, Clinton, IA, buried in Camanche Cemetery.

George Nelson Conard, born 17 June 1830, OH, died 24 January 1894, Clinton, IA, buried Springdale Cemetery.

Lucinda Meyres Conard, born 30 June 1833, VA, died 5 December 1910, Clinton, IA, buried Springdale Cemetery.

Nehemiah H. Russell, born 24 August 1789, probably VT, died 20 September 1843, Clinton, IA, buried Shafton Cemetery, Follette.

Mary Ann Lamson Russell, born 25 July 1795, NY, died 6 April 1858, Clinton County, IA, buried in Shafton Cemetery, Follette.

Please let us know the cost of obtaining copies of the available probate records. We feel that these records would be very helpful in our continuing search

To: Descendants of the Early Russells of Fort Covington, Franklin Co., New York

From: Edward Leach, Descendant of Nehemiah H. Russell, Early Resident of Fort Covington

This note is really a long shot. I hope you can help us with a family history puzzle. I have checked census records, deed records, and many publications in large genealogical libraries in Salt Lake City and Boston, but I still have not been able to connect my ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, to the other Russells of Fort Covington. If one or more of you are a descendant of an early Russell, it is possible that you may have facts or even scraps of information that could be a source of answers. I am going to mention some of the material that I have found.

According to the 1830 census, five Russell families lived in your town. On page 53 of the census, there were Daniel, 20-30 years; Henry, age 30-40 years; Nehemiah H., age 40-50 years. On page 54 of the census, there were William, age 30-40 years; and Humphrey, age 50-60 years. The Humphrey household, in addition to Humphrey, had l male between 15-20 and 1 male between 20-30 (probably Humphrey, Jr.). These people had to be close neighbors, and they probably had family ties.

The heads of household between the age 50-60 years were born between 1770 and 1780; people between age 40-50 were born between 1780 and 1790; people between age 30-40 were born between 1790 and 1800, and people between age 20-30 were born between 1800 and 1810.

I found deed records in Washington County, New York, with Humphrey Russell and his wife, Sylvia, of Fort Covington, Franklin County, New York, granting property. I have requested copies of these deeds from Washington County in a continuing search for answers.

In October 1996, my wife and I visited Fort Covington; and we spent an hour or two looking for Russell grave sites. We found the following headstones that seemed to correspond to people listed in the 1830 census. Daniel, born 1804, died at age 52, in 1856; Humphrey, Jr., born 1804, died 1887; Sylvia, wife of H. Russell, died April 1853, at age 80. We were unable to locate a grave for William, born between 1790 and 1800; Henry, born between 1790 and 1800; and Humphrey, born between 1770 and 1780. I did locate a tombstone for Humphrey's wife, Sylvia. My ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, did not stay in Fort Covington. He and his family moved to Clinton County, Iowa, where he died in 1843.

We found a headstone for Henry Russell who died July 1817 at age 51 years. Three Russells were recorded on the same page of the 1810 census in White Creek, Washington County, New York. Henry, age 45 and over, was probably the Henry who died in 1817. He would have been born in 1766, so it fits.

If you have information or some scraps of facts that can help me make sense of these early relationships, I would be grateful. I will be glad to share any information with you that fits your ancestors.

I suspect that Nehemiah H. Russell may have been the oldest son of Humphrey Russell, Sr., and his wife, Sylvia., His middle initial H. which was used even on his headstone may have been Humphrey.

We are attempting to contact descendants of William & Geanee (Leach) Ellingham. Geanee's father, William H. Leach, was the older brother of Edward John Leach. William and Edward had one sister, Hattie M. Leach, who never married. Their parents were John Crum Leach, born 1827, NY, and Mary C. Greene, born 1830, Shelborne, VT.

We have been researching Ed's Leach ancestors for a number of years, but we have felt that other Leach descendants might have important facts that would be helpful in our search for answers.

To: Descendants of George Nelson Conard, and his wife, Lucinda Meyres

From: Edward Leach, Descendant of George Nelson & Lucinda Conard

I am trying to contact other descendants of George Nelson Conard and his wife, Lucinda Meyres who were married in Knox County, Ohio, in 1850.,

My great grandmother, Amanda J. Conard, born about 1851 in Ohio, was the oldest child of George and Lucinda. Amanda married James W. Jones in March 1871 in Clinton, Iowa. James and Amanda moved to Chicago where she died in February 1890. She is buried in Springdale cemetery in Clinton with some other family members.

According to Census records, the Conard family moved to Iowa about 1855. Amanda and Isaac were born in Ohio. Ida, John, Sarah, Lillian, Minnie, and Maude Alice were born in Iowa.

It is possible that other descendants of George and Lucinda are living in the area surrounding Clinton. With this idea in mind, I decided to send this note to you. I have been researching my family for several years, but many unanswered questions remain. Some questions are Who were George and Lucinda's parents? When and where were they born? Who were their siblings? Other people often have letters, photos, stories, or other memorabilia that help in the search for answers. Of course, I am always glad to share information that I have found.

Amanda and Lillian Conard married brothers. Amanda married James W. Jones, and Lillian G. Conard married Alfred Carter Jones. The Jones brothers were born in Missouri, and both James and Alfred were railroad men. They lived in Chicago after leaving Clinton. We know that Sarah Conard married Bert Mc (his last name was illegible on their marriage record) in 1877, Ida married Frank Townsend in 1879, Minnie married George Belles in 1889, and Maude Alice married Harry Ray in 1893. We have no information about Isaac or John Conard. Census records gave us information about their probable birth year. Isaac was born about 1854; and John, about 1859.

I would appreciate hearing from you if you are a descendant of George and Lucinda Conard. Even a scrap of information often leads to an answer to a puzzling question.

Ten years ago we had a reunion in Clinton, Iowa, with two cousins from the East Coast. We decided that Clinton was the appropriate meeting place because so many of our ancestors lived there. The people we met were so friendly and hospitable. We have very fond memories of our visit to your area.

To: Descendants of Nehemiah H. Russell & Mary Ann Lamson

From: Edward Leach, Dececendant of Nehemiah H. Russell & Mary Ann Lamson

I am a descendant of Roxana (Russell) Chandler, born 1840, near Syracuse, New York. The Nehemiah H. Russell family probably arrived in the Camanche area before 1843. The Russells are buried in Shafton cemetery, Follette, Clinton County, Iowa.

Roxana Russell was the youngest child; and her sister, Mary Abigail (Russell) Shaff, was the oldest child of Nehemiah and Mary Ann Russell. Roxana married William M. Chandler, December 1864, in Clinton. They had two sons, Lester and William A Chandler, who survived them. Both Lester and William, my ancestor, moved from Clinton area..

At the time of Roxana's death in October 1894, she had three brothers who survived her. Amherst and Thomas Russell lived in the Camanche area, and Adna Russell resided in California. Roxana's brother, Friend Russell, died in Camanche in 1877.

I have been researching my Russell/Chandler connection for a number of years, but I have not progressed beyond Nehemiah H. Russell and Mary Ann Lamson. We do know that Nehemiah was living in Fort Covington, New York, in 1830. Other Russells were living in this small town at the same time, and I do suspect there was a relationship between them. However, I have not determined the relationship at this time.

Since Roxana had three brothers who lived in Clinton County, I felt that some of their descendants might currently live in Clinton or Scott Counties. In an attempt to find other facts about my ancestors, I decided to contact the Russells, Shaffs, and Parkhursts in Clinton and nearby communities. Other descendants often have facts, leads, stories, pictures, or other memorabilia that help in the search for answers.

We were in Clinton, Iowa, 10 years ago for a reunion with two cousins from the East Coast. We still have fond memories of the gracious hospitality and helpful attitude of the people we met.

Mary McKenrick, of Low Moor, and Marian Paasch, of Clinton, were so friendly and helpful. We felt really at home in Iowa. Mary, a descendant of Amherst and Ann (Willett) Russell, shared bible records and allowed us to review Ann Russell's diary. Both Marian and Mary were most generous with their time, ideas, and hospitality. It was an unforgettable visit.

If you are a descendant of Friend, Amherst, or Thomas, Russell, or their sisters, Mary Abigail Russell, wife of Heman B. Shaff, and Lydia E. aka Emily L. or Emeline Russell, wife of Waldo Parkhurst, I would appreciate hearing from you. My name, address, telephone No., and e-mail address are Edward Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409-6263, (707) 537-1609, bleach@inreach.com.

To: Descendants of Relatives and Siblings of William M. Chandler, born 1841, Peru, NY

From: Edward Leach, great grandson of William M. Chandler

William M. Chandler, born 1841, Peru, NY, moved with his parents to Clinton Co., before 1860. About 1863, William Chandler, married Roxanna Russell, born 1841, near Syracuse, NY. Roxana moved with her parents, Nehemiah H. Russell and his wife, Mary Ann (Lamson) Russell and her brothers and sisters, to Clinton before 1843. Both the Chandler and Russell families settled near Camanche.

William Chandler's obituary in 1893 provided several facts in addition to his birth date and birthplace. It stated that "his aged mother still lives near Camanche", but she was not identified by name. I have been unable to determine her identity. I have wondered if William M. Chandler's father died, and his mother remarried.

According to their obituaries, both William and Roxana were buried in the Camanche cemetery. They had two sons, Lester and William, my ancestor, who survived them; however, neither son remained in Clinton County.

If you have any information concerning my ancestors, I would appreciate hearing from you.

To: Descendants of the Early Russells of Fort Covington, Franklin Co., New York

From: Edward Leach, Descendant of Nehemiah H. Russell, Early Resident of Fort Covington

This note is really a long shot. I hope you can help us with a family history puzzle. I have checked census records, deed records, and many publications in large genealogical libraries in Salt Lake City and Boston, but I still have not been able to connect my ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, to the other Russells of Fort Covington. If one or more of you are a descendant of an early Russell, it is possible that you may have facts or even scraps of information that could be a source of answers. I am going to mention some of the material that I have found.

According to the 1830 census, five Russell families lived in your town. On page 53 of the census, there were Daniel, 20-30 years; Henry, age 30-40 years; Nehemiah H., age 40-50 years. On page 54 of the census, there were William, age 30-40 years; and Humphrey, age 50-60 years. The Humphrey household, in addition to Humphrey, had l male between 15-20 and 1 male between 20-30 (probably Humphrey, Jr.). These people had to be close neighbors, and they probably had family ties.

The heads of household between the age 50-60 years were born between 1770 and 1780; people between age 40-50 were born between 1780 and 1790; people between age 30-40 were born between 1790 and 1800, and people between age 20-30 were born between 1800 and 1810.

I found deed records in Washington County, New York, with Humphrey Russell and his wife, Sylvia, of Fort Covington, Franklin County, New York, granting property. I have requested copies of these deeds from Washington County in a continuing search for answers.

In October 1996, my wife and I visited Fort Covington; and we spent an hour or two looking for Russell grave sites. We found the following headstones that seemed to correspond to people listed in the 1830 census. Daniel, born 1804, died at age 52, in 1856; Humphrey, Jr., born 1804, died 1887; Sylvia, wife of H. Russell, died April 1853, at age 80. We were unable to locate a grave for William, born between 1790 and 1800; Henry, born between 1790 and 1800; and Humphrey, born between 1770 and 1780. I did locate a tombstone for Humphrey's wife, Sylvia. My ancestor, Nehemiah H. Russell, did not stay in Fort Covington. He and his family moved to Clinton County, Iowa, where he died in 1843.

We found a headstone for Henry Russell who died July 1817 at age 51 years. Three Russells were recorded on the same page of the 1810 census in White Creek, Washington County, New York. Henry, age 45 and over, was probably the Henry who died in 1817. He would have been born in 1766, so it fits.

If you have information or some scraps of facts that can help me make sense of these early relationships, I would be grateful. I will be glad to share any information with you that fits your ancestors.

I suspect that Nehemiah H. Russell may have been the oldest son of Humphrey Russell, Sr., and his wife, Sylvia., His middle initial H. which was used even on his headstone may have been Humphrey.

Hi Dears;

Bravo for you!! Amazing the information you have accumulated. A lot of hard work is represented there.

The only information I have to add is that King's Father died in 1947. John, King's brother, died in 1984.

Was up in Seattle visiting Deb & Lou several weeks ago but was only there for a week and then went on down to Amboy, Wash. for my Dad's 95th birthday celebration and then home. Sometime when I come up again will get over to see you if you're home.

Please change my address to 1740 Manor Blvd. You still have the old address of 1752 Manor. That was when we lived next door umpteen years ago.

Lee is home from her trip. Guess she had a good time. Meeting her tomorrow for lunch to hear about it She was pretty tired so needed a few days to recouperate.

Gentlemen:

We have reached many dead ends in our search for records of our great grandfather, John C. (Crum) Leach. We hope to find some information from his land records, but we don't quite know how to proceed.

John C. Leach, farmer, P O Racine, owned 17 acres sec 5, R 23, Am

The above description was taken from the City and County residence and Business Directory of Kenosha, Wisconsin, First Edition, 1875.

He and his wife, Mary, left the Racine area probably between 1875 and 1880. Is this enough information to determine the site of the property and the probable transfer of the property to someone else.

We need to find the town or county of his birth and his parents' names if possible. Would this information be on the record of land ownership?

I need to know where and how to direct my query. I also need to know the cost involved.

Enclosed is a self-addressed, stamped envelope for any information you may provide us. I will definitely appreciate any help you can give us.

Yours very truly,

Dear Carolyn:

Thank you for being so helpful on the telephone and with the materials you sent to me. I'm finally beginning to make sense out of the family relationships.

I have now accounted for 3 of the 4 children born to Arthur & Anabelle Leach. They had one daughter, Geraldine, whose last name was Bishop. If you would look in your records to see she if she is buried in either of your cemeteries, I would appreciate it.

She may be still alive since she was born ca 1921. Her three brothers moved to California, so she might have moved away from Racine, too.

Thank you again for your help. My check for $20 is enclosed. I have also enclosed a self-addressed envelope in the event you find something about Geraldine.

Subject: Moving Wednesday

Dear Lori & Guy:
Our house sold in less than 3 weeks. We have been working constantly to get it ready to sell; and after it sold, we had to get ready to move. Boxes, boxes, boxes everywhere. We had to downsize to go from an 1800 sq.ft. house to an 1100 sq.ft. apartment. We do have a single garage at the apartment. We're going to rent for at least a year, so we don't make another mistake. No more 55+ communities for us.

The movers are supposed to pick up our "stuff" on Tuesday, and the house is supposed to close on Wednesday. Then we're outa here. Our new address is 10 Sea Terrace, Dana Point, CA 92629; phone is 949-496-3963. I haven't been able to do any jewelry making since this all started, but it should be over soon.

We hope all is well at the Harmsen household. I hope your mother is doing all right now. Love, Betty We'll let you know when we get a new e-mail address. We're getting advice from Ira on how to proceed on that one.

The ice is melting today, but I'm not sure if it will stay that way. It could snow tomorrow and start all over again. Mom is having quite a time walking, even with the walker. It's not easy. She wishes she could be back in her little apartment, but I think that will be a while! My sister, Eileen, (whom you know very well!!!) wants to come here to visit over Memorial Day and wants me to fly with her.
I'm so glad that either my brother and sister-in-law or I will be here for her. I leave again this coming Saturday; the time is passing so quickly.
Thanks for keeping in touch.

Subject: Sardines..........the truth!

Dear Betty;

The paper about the "redneck sardines" only makes sense, if one lives in the arid Southwest. We have three endangered suckers in this area. (1) the Colorado razorack sucker (aka "squawfish") (2) the hupbacked sucker, and (3) the Rio Grande silvery-sided minnow. Each of these are fairly plentiful, but in dry years they must scramble to survive.

Some of the environmentalists went to court and tried to set up a situation where, if there wasn't enough water in a particular stretch of river, then farmers would be required to just stop watering and let their crops die, in favor of the minnows flourishing. Lots of farmers didn't see that as a good idea.

In addition to that, some environmental groups in Colorado tried to get a bill thru, authorizing tens of millions of tax dollars, to build tiny little fish ladders on tiny little streams and rills, so the minnows could go upstream to breed. As a result of all this, I indulged in a little "tongue in cheek"paper,about,Redneck sardines.

One of (many phone calls coming to me after the papers appeared was from a friend). Bart told me that when he was a small boy, they moved from Oklahoma to Southern California, and he being little, his job was to go to the big irrigation ditch near their tent, and net all the sardine size suckers he could. When he took them home, his mom pressure cooked them, and prepared them like sardines. (A true life proof, that the plan would work). Bart still goes fishing and loves fish. Forgot to ask him what was his favorite sauce.

I will have to check it out, and see how much Omega 3 oil, per pound of "Redneck Sardines", but we might be onto something there!

Actually, the plan was not totally tongue in cheek. Close to where we live is Navajo Dam and the San Juan River, which is the premiere trout fishery in the southwest. It would not be so, but for the trout hatcheries operated by the State and Federal governments. Shux........if it's good enough for game fishes, might it not be good enough for sucker minnows?

On to serious stuff. I surely understand your frustration with not yet finding that great-great-grandpa (James Salisbury), but hang tight, and have faith. On several occasions, I was ready to just quit, and like magic, something showed up. Too busy to chase it right now, but seem on the verge of figuring out my Salisbury line. Actually have a potential down-line, going back some four generations prior to my great-grandpa........but just cant drive a solid nail into it, and not going to say `tis so, Hi Betty and Ed, We enjoyed hearing from you....your card and e-mail. Thanks.

Fifteen people came to the Loft restaurant at Hayward Airport on Dec. 13 for the retired THS teacher's reunion. Don't know how many of them you would have known It would have been more fun to stay there a day before or afterward, but we had another engagement here, so went down and came home right after the luncheon.

We go to Oklahoma City to see daughter Nancy and granddaughter for Christmas. We'll have nine here for an early dinner and then make the flight early from Sacramento.

Dan finished radiation a couple of months ago and is staying busy. Says he feels fine. He had a cataract removed two weeks ago and could see 20/20 coming out of the operating room. The operation took only minutes. Dan is delighted with the results.

I am to have a cataract removed 1-12 and look forward to much -improved vision. Also I meet with the plastic surgeon 1-5 and he will tell me what his plan is for improving my upper lip which is disfigured. Also the operating date. We had hoped to have all health problems happily settled in 2000 but if it only takes up Jan. 2001, that won't be too bad. We don't plan a trip to Arizona now, but the colder and rainier it gets, the closer Tucson or Maui seem.

What are your plans? How is your health? Hope all is well with you and yours. Do you go to Hayward occasionally? We visited a friend in Half Moon Bay for 3 days in Nov. and enjoyed that. The once-delightful Shore Bird Restaurant there is now a Brewery Restaurant. Didn't mean to BEND your ear! Bests, Frances and Dan

Dear Sally: Thanks for taking care of Sherri's genealogy for me. As soon as I get it, I will enter it into the program. However, I hardly recognize the office. I have worked for 8 days to clean it up. I hope it will stay that way, but it's not quite finished yet. Still a bit more to do.

Here is Lee's address. I believe that the Gehls are living at this address now, too. Did you tell us that bit of news? If you didn't, I don't know where we heard it. (Senior Moment!). Mrs. Leola or Rex Hyde, The Palms, 100 Sterling Court, (Apt. 232?, Ann wasn't sure of the apt. # when I talked to her.), Roseville, CA 95678, Telephone # 916-773-2562. Do you address letters to Lee as Mrs. Leola or Mrs. Rex Hyde? I guess, according to what I read in the paper the other day, that a widow is addressed by her husband's first name. I guess we have done it both ways with her correspondence.

We got quite a jolt from the Napa Valley earthquake Saturday night, but we didn't have any damage here that I know of. It was surely a different story in Napa. It was such a sharp that we both woke up. There is a low mountain range separatiang the two valleys, but both are good wine grape growing areas. We had some rain last week, and I'm quite sure the growers were unhappy. Love, Betty

Betty,

It was good to hear from you. It is busy around here getting ready for Christmas.

I have been doing a lot of geneology this year. I have found a lot of new information on a lot of lines.

I got several papers on the Salisburys in New York, one is the Revelution papers for the James Salisbury that was in that area and he is related to Romeo and all of the ones James was related to. I will have to send more on that after Christmas.

I had found a different line on my Mom's side that are in New York area and there is an awful lot of Salisburys in their area. A lot of them moved into the same county and James was born in so I am looking into those lines.

Hope you've found some new stuff. the computer has really opend up a lot of new avenues for me.

Hope you have a great Christmas.

Subject: On the Move

Dear Maxine:
I really am sorry to have put the genealogy research on the back burner, but "stuff" just keeps happening.

In July & February, Ed & I went to Newport Beach to take care of my daughter's two cats while she & her husband went to Venice. We really decided we liked the moderate climate of the Southern California coast, so we decided about 2 1/2 weeks ago to sell our home here and move to Dana Point which is close to San Juan Capistrano. We decided to rent an apartment at least for awhile, so we sent our daughter out to scout the area. She found an apartment complex she likes, so we'll check it out on the 30th.

Another great big plus. I will only be about 5 miles from the National Archives Branch at Laguna Niguel, so I will be able to do census research to my heart's content. The 1930 census should be out in 2002.

Have you received anymore Chase or Siderius information? I'll stay in touch.

Dear Barbara:
Thanks for the e-mail. I feel guilty for not getting on with my genealogy research, but "stuff" just keeps happening.

About 2 1/2 weeks ago, we decided to move to Southern California. We'll only be about 25 minutes from my youngest daughter who lives in Newport Beach, CA. We plan to rent an apartment in Dana Point on the Coast at least for awhile. We like to be close to water, and we prefer a more moderate climate than we have here in Santa Rosa.

One gigantic plus: I will be only about 5 miles from the National Archives Branch at Laguna Niguel. I really can't believe that luck. So if you have any census questions, just let me know when we get moved. We just listed our house today, so now we just have to wait for the right buyer.

I won't be doing much research for awhile.

Dear Betty,

I have the dates and places you asked for and will mail the folder to you in the next few days. I took me a while as I had to e-mail my niece and nephew for their info.

I also enjoyed meeting Maxine. She's a really neat person, and it was so nice of her to let me stay with her until my friend arrived. We had a good time looking at pictures and talking about relatives.

I don't know how helpful I can be, but I will be glad to answer any questions I can. You know much more than I do about the family. I have taken some of the old pictures my mother has and framed them and hung them in one of my bedrooms; if I lit candles, it would look like a shrine. I did both of my parents families.

Again, if I can help, let me know. When you have finished (it's an ongoing project), my nephew would like a copy. I would also like one, but if you send one, I'll have copies made for anyone who wants one.

Hope to hear from you soon. Sincerely, Barbara

Subject: Thanks for Info

Dear Jean:
Thanks for all the data. I just finished entering it into the genealogy program. I will mail copies to you tomorrow. We are going to So. CA from 3/30-4/2. When I get back, I will give you a call on the phone to see if everything is correct.. I need to check for errors. Even though I try to be careful, errors sometimes creep in.

I still need Curt's birth date. We really do appreciate having a more complete record of your family. We're still missing some of the descendants of John C. Leach, but we do believe we have most of them. William H. Leach's family, your grandfather's brother, was difficult. If we hadn't been able to check Racine, WI, vital records, there would still be many unknowns there. We were only able to talk to two adopted children of Arthur Garfield Leach, and they didn't know much about the family. William H. Leach & his wife, Emma, had 6 children. Three daughters died under 5 years of age in the 1890's. One from diptheria; another, whooping cough; and another, cerebral meningitis. What a hard life.

Thanks again.

Subject: Almost Finished

Dear Jean:
We'll probably be in ND sometime late August. We have our house on the market, and we will be moving to Southern California--probably Dana Point--about 50 miles N of San Diego. I've been doing some jewelry design, and my daughter, Pam, who designs & imports Venetian glass beads liked my stuff, so she put my casual collection on her website. If you want to check out our stuff, just go to www.viamurano.com. Anyway, she'll be only about 25 minutes away, so we'll be able to do bead shows together. As you've guessed our travel plans are really on hold since we don't know when the house will sell. Sales have slowed a bit, but I feel people have stock market jitters which is spilling over into consumer confidence. We'll just have to see.

Almost finished refers to my (our) work on The Descendants of John Crum Leach & Mary C. Greene; and, of course, the descendants of Edward John Leach & Elizabeth King. We wondered if you just want us to go with what we have for you & your family. I don't have anything on you & Curt. Just send me an e-mail if you want to add anything.

Dear Genny & Pat, too:
We're sort of planning a trip to ND & beyond sometime in late August; however, we have our house on the market. Our trip plans, therefore, have to be tentative. When the house sells, we going to move to Dana Point about 50 miles N. of San Diego. We're planning to rent an apartment at least for awhile. I've been doing some jewelry design lately; and my daughter, Pam, who designs jewelry & imports Venetian glass beads, liked my stuff well enough to put my casual collection on her website. If you want to take a look at our work, just go to www.viamurano.com. Anyway, she will only be about 25 minutes away, so we'll be able to do bead shows together.

Sales on homes seem to slowing here a bit. I feel that people have stock market jitters which is spilling over into consumer confidence. Anyway, our travel plans hinge on what happens here. We've taken at least 2 pickup loads to Goodwill & another 2 loads to the landfill. We have to unload a lot of stuff if we going to fit into an apartment.

ALMOST FINISHED refers refers to our work on The Descendants of John Crum Leach & Mary C. Greene; and, of course, the descendants of Edward John Leach & Elizabeth King. We wondered if you just want us to go with what we have for you & your family. Just let us know by e-mail if you want to add or change anything about your children & grandchildren. Do you have any great grandchildren?

Subject: Congratulations

It certainly was a red letter day getting your email. I think it is exciting that you're making this move. A change gives a person a new lease on life. You told of so many plus factors and being closer to your daughter is great. Will you still be making the spring trip you had once mentioned?

Don't feel guilty about putting genealogy on the back burner. You have contributed so much to so many of us. You certainly deserve a crown.

I even think getting rid of things is great, living in an apartment without so much housework. Making the decisions of what to get rid of is what is hard. My sister had to get rid of so much, living in her huge townhouse and going into a senior living facility. She now has two bedrooms, two baths, a living room and a small kitchen. She says she doesn't miss a thing she got rid of. She still has a housekeeper come in every two weeks. Course she has had help all thru the years and is spoiled I guess. Wish I could claim the same.

Two weeks ago (March 5th), I had catarac surgery in my left eye. I am such a baby, I was scared to death. Really, it was easy. When they removed the patch the next day, my eye was badly irritated and swollen shut and it has taken the two weeks for the vision in that eye to come in but they say everyone is different. I go back in the first of April and I hope they can determine I can go ahead with a new lens prescription. I had wanted to go ahead and do the other eye soon as possible. Will have to wait and see.

We have had threats of snow all winter. Sometimes it doesn't happen, and then sometimes it's milder than predicted but I'll sure be glad to see spring arrive. I did hear a robin yesterday but I'm not sure they all leave in the winter anyway.

You'll be pretty busy now but hope we can keep in touch every so often. I think your new business sounds great. Jack said he would try to get your daughter's website so I'll let you know.

Dear Betty,

It is so good to hear from you. Thanks for taking the time to write your e-mail. Oh gosh! Another move! Know you will enjoy being closer to your daughter in Southern California. Have you been effected by the power outage problem? Our gas rate tripled this year, so I'm thrilled to welcome spring.

I had a good thing going communicating with Donald Chase. However, he wrote asking me to tell him about his father's first marriage. The little that I know is from Ron Chase, who told me that he had told Donald when they last visited. So...I haven't heard from Donald since Jan.
He never mentioned more about himself or his sister, Susan. Lack of knowledge about his Dad's early life must be bothering him.

I'm teaching full-time this semester. One of the deaf/hard of hearing staff resigned before Christmas. So I'm filling in until summer with a class of 5 multi-handicapped deaf students, who are sweethearts. Hope to save up for another trip to Holland, etc.

Good luck selling your home, and with the big move. Please keep e-mailing.

Dear Betty,

Have you sold your home? I've thought about you, and know you will be happy close to your daughter and the National Archives.

Did you formerly live in Friday Harbor? It seems that you told me that awhile back. Over my spring break, Charles and I flew to Seattle for the week. We stayed in Seattle 3 days, then drove/ ferried over to San Juan Island. If you lived there, perhaps you remember the Hillside House B & B on Carter St. We stayed there with Kathy and Dick Robinson, the owners. That is a lovely part of the world. Just a bit nippy, though! I noticed that there were 3 Sideriuses listed in the Seattle phone book: Frank, Michael, and Raymond. Did you tell me that you had contacted them, but didn't get much response? I didn't attempt to contact them, but would like to meet them sometime.

And, I hope to meet you someday soon. I know we'll get back to California someday for a visit. Right now, Charles and I are talking about one more trip to Europe in the fall. I plan to fit-in another visit to Sint Annaparochie. Charles has recovered from a ruptured appendix, which was contained--didn't spread into the abdominal cavity. It's a rare malady, and just needs to be monitored. Should he ever experience the pain, etc. again, he knows to get to an emergency room immediately!!! It took a long time just to get a diagnosis.

No, I've not heard from anyone in the family, except Barbara Dale. We enjoy comparing teaching situations. I'm teaching full-time this semester--filling in for a teacher who resigned at Christmas time. There are 4 more weeks of school.

Please let me know about your move, and of course, your new address and email address.

Love, Maxine

Subject: We're Really on the Move

Dear Maxine:
We sold our house in less than 3 weeks, and all the inspections have been done. Our realtor said today that it should close on time on the 16th of May. We have to be out on COE.

Yes, we lived at Cape San Juan, Friday Harbor, from 1/1987 to 4/97. We loved it there--the scenery is absolutely gorgeous & the people were very warm & friendly, but I really didn't like the long drab winters. So Ed graciously agreed to return to California.

Raymond Siderius is the grandson of Fred Siderius. He has a sister, Mercedes, and a brother, Robert. I just got the rest of Robert's family information last week. When I called Raymond about 10 years ago, he said, "I don't think we're related because we pronounce our name S(eye)derius". We finally agreed, though, that his paternal grandfather & my paternal grandmother were brother & sister. I need to call them for an update on their family, but I just haven't done it yet. Frank & Michael are probably his sons. I will look it up, but we are in the process now of packing the "stuff" in my office. It's really a disaster. I can't believe how much material I have. I still have to update the Jones family, but I believe that Jimmy, John Paul Jones' wife, is unwell. I will try to talk to their sons.

We are leasing a 2 bedroom 2 bath apartment in Dana Point for 12 months. If we decide we would rather be in a house or condo, we'll make that change next spring. We will have a distant view of the ocean. Pam says that we are about 1 1/2 miles from the harbor.

Charles is lucky about the appendix. He must have felt absolutely horrible. In 1966, I had my appendix removed, but I had to wait on the gurney so long that the infection started to leak probably into the abdominal cavity. I still remember the very bad taste in my mouth. It does sound very unusual that the process would stop like his did. Anyway, he averted surgery.

Our new address will be 10 Sea Terrace, Dana Point, CA 92629. We will have to get a new internet provider, so I will let you know what that address is when I receive it.

Your planned trip to Europe sounds wonderful. I don't know if we'll make it to Holland or not. I sort of a cowardly flyer. But maybe. We promised to go to ND & PA this fall, so we'll probably leave about the 15 of August. If we do go, I want to get to Melette Cemetery. I want to see if William Jones is buried there. I'll probably go on a little further to the Ashton Cemetery. Is there any information you want from that cemetery.

I could continue on with this note, but I guess I had better get to work. Packing is hard work--so many decisions. This e-mail address will be in effect until the 15th of May. Love, Betty

Dear Gladys & Rusty
Glad to get your e-mail address. Ours will be changed when we move. We have to be out of here by the 16th of May. We will be approximately 50 miles N of San Diego on the Coast. We will be renting an apartment for at least a year to see how we like it.

Our two youngest children, Ed' son, Mike, & my daughter, Pam, have come up with these auto immune diseases. Mike's disease is really rare--only a few cases world wide. It's called Relapsing Polychondritis, and it is an inflammation of the cartiledge. Of course, cartiledge is everywhere in the body. He has many & varied symptoms, but very very bad headaches are a common occurence. Pam has MS; but the drug, Avonex, has helped her a lot. It seems to retard the progress of the disease. It really hasn't slowed her down very much.

We hope you are feeling well. I feel lucky if I only have a few pains now & then.

We sold the house in less than 3 weeks, so we have been very busy for at least 2 1/2 months. We'll be glad to finally get to our new destination. I'm dreading the drive because I have to drive the Honda. I haven't driven 500 + miles in at least 4 years. I used to follow Ed with the car when we brought the trailer from WA to CA for the winter.

Pam has started a new business importing Venetian glass beads, so she wants to go to Tucson for a big week-long bead show in February. I may do something with Swarovski crystals to keep her company at shows. I hope this gets to you before you leave for MN. Let us know your MN e-mail address. We hope to see you folks sometime. Is there going to another reunion in Havana in 2 years? Betty & Ed, too gladrusil@qwest.net is the current address. I have talked about writing to you and suggested Rusty think up what he wanted to say. He wrote a nice long letter to a niece early last winter. It took awhile and he corrected his mistakes-Park and Reinsch would have been proud. He called me to come and send it. As I came around the corner I saw the masterpiece and he must have breathed on some button and it flew away. Haven't seen it since. Since I'm the involved one in the packing I told him to forget the e-mail but get busy and call you guys. It's soon reunion time - - - no reunion. Good to keep in touch.

I assume you are all caught up on the news-sorry to hear about your son's ill health. Tough to see your kyds suffer. Write the name of the problem, please.

We will be here a few more days, would appreciate a note if you have time. Gladys

Subject: Need Martha's Address

Dear Jean:
We have the paper, Some of the Descendants of John Crum Leach and his wife, Mary C. Greene, ready to mail tomorrow. I would like to send a copy to Martha Yunker Ahles, but I can't find her address. Ed couldn't find it on the internet, either. Do you have it? Her mother was interested in the family's history, and I feel she would have liked Martha to have a copy.

The paper is 26 pages including an index. I hope more earlier generations can be uncovered. John Leach seems to have been one of the favorite names for NH males in the 1700's. I would love to go to Bowe, NH, where David Leach's parents were married. We're firmly convinced that David was an older brother of John Crum Leach. We have discussed some of those problems in the notes section for John Crum Leach. Thanks for your help. We're closing in on our part of the packing. Bekins is supposed to be here on the 15th to load our "stuff". We hope you have Martha's address. E & B

Subject: I'm Taking a Break

Dear Rocky
We're probably about 85% done with our part of the packing. The movers are supposed to be here on the 15th of May, so we have time. I haven't done anymore in the kitchen, but when Pam was here in late March, we got rid of a lot of unnecessary "stuff". Three pickup loads went to Goodwill & Salvation Army. Anyway, it feels good to be almost done. I would like a few days to concentrate on genealogy before we leave here.

Mike's reunion idea sounds like a definite possibility. I was trying to think of possible destinations, but the only cities that came to mind were Las Vegas, Phoenix, & San Diego. Las Vegas & Phoenix would be hard to take in the summer. We were in Las Vegas to visit a friend early last May, & the temperatures were in the 90's already. It was hot. I haven't really had any experience in those kinds of arrangements, have you? For those of us who are retired, the time of year isn't that important; but Maxine & Barbara are still teaching. I doubt if Dale would be able to come to a reunion. She called just before Easter, and we talked briefly. I will check in with her before we move, but I don't believe she leaves home much anymore. She said that her son Bill does her shopping for her.

Before the movers pack my computer, I'm going to run a copy of the Siderius file; but this copy will have the latest additions & corrections. I will send it to you, so there will be one updated copy available.

You will soon be getting your new glasses. Most people say that cataract surgery makes a great difference. I will be interested to hear about your experience.

Well, I need to do a little more packing before it time to make dinner. More later. Love, Betty PS I feel that we will always be good friends. bjl

Subject: Many

Dear Betty,
You certainly have been extremely busy. Jack and I talk of moving every now and then. When we think of the involvement, We don't mention it again for quite sometime. It's nice that you like cats--so many people don't. I had Angora cats when I was little but when something happened to them, my dad said no more as it was upsetting to him to see me so upset. I have a friend recently widowed. Her kids got her a cat and he is a character and very entertaining when we go there for club.

I had the two cataract surgeries, six weeks apart. I think I am doing well but won't get my new glass prescription for another couple weeks or so. It was my decision to wait until then. Jack and I both had colds but we really are quite good compared to some. Nellie Siderius nephew and wife stopped for a couple hours on their way home from Arizona. We really did enjoy their visit. Our weather is turning hot quite quickly but Jack and I believe waiting until Memorial Day to put out any bedding plants. My planting the past couple years has been only in flower pots and those can always be moved to the garage. Jack works circles around people that are much younger than he is. He really is a marvel.

Son Mike mentioned last Sunday it would be nice if there could be a Siderius family reunion. I would at least like to see those new to me, such as you Maxine and Barbara and of course Dallas and Dale. I'm sure this would be a real ordeal for Dallas and Dale. I would like to go to San Benito again. There are so many things I want to do.

Thanks for your email plus your new address. You have been such a good friend. We wish you the best in your new location. I will be patient to hear from you but I hope we can continue our correspondence.
We still hope you will be going thru here sometime. Rocky

Dear Mr.and Mrs. Leach,

Re.: Leach ancestry

I was recently given your letter from the librarian at the Baker Free Library. At present, I'm Chairman of the Bow Historical Comm.

We don't do genealogy research but do have occasion to view old town documents;(now that I have your address, I'll be happy to pass along any information I discover on the Leaches and/or Ellises in Bow during the early 1800's)

Yesterday, while looking at a genealogy index, under+LEACH -"Lawrence(1)Emig. anc., with wife Elizabeth, came 1629; Robert(2) b.Eng. m. Alice; Samuel(3) of Manchester m. Arabella, dau,of John Norman; Catherine Leach, dau. of Samuel, married Joseph Allen."

(the Allenses and also the Ellises have been in and out of Bow over the years.)

Records in Manchester, NH might offer a clue?

Dear Friends, Relatives, and Descendants of Edward John Leach and Elizabeth King Leach of Havana, North Dakota

Ed, Sally & I have been working on family genealogy for the past several months. We have learned many facts about the family, and we would like to share some of the information with you.

Elizabeth King was the youngest daughter of Samuel Ashley King and Hannah E. Studwell. Samuel's parents were John King and Alpa M. H. Buck. At this time, the names of Hannah's parents are unknown.

John King's parents were probably Oliver and Ruth King who lived and died in Chelsea, VT. We have copies of land records which show transactions between Oliver King, Oliver, Jr., Horace, and John King. We hope to secure more definite proof later. We suspect that Ruth King was an Allen. The name Horace Allen King was given to one of Alpa and John's sons and to a son of one of the other Kings.

We found that Alpa's parents were Daniel Buck and Content Ashley. Daniel Buck was a Revolutionary War soldier and lost his left arm as a result of war injuries. He was born in Hebron, CT, but he moved to Norwich, VT, where he practiced law until he moved to Chelsea, VT, in 1805.

He served in the House of Representatives during George Washington's second administration. A history of Chelsea indicated that he served as Speaker of the House from 1793 to 1795.

Daniel Buck and Content Ashley had eleven children. They named three of their daughters Alpa. Alpa (1) died at age 17 on the 30 September 1807, and Alpa (2) died 27 April 1807. Alpa (3) was born an hour before her sister Alpa (2) died. She became the wife of John King and the mother of Samuel Ashley King. We suspect that Alpa was the name of either Daniel or Content's mother. There was a Samuel Ashley in VT during that period, but we have made no connection at this time.

Daniel Buck died in 1816, and Content Buck died in 1850. Both are buried in the Old Cemetery in Chelsea, VT.

We have been unable to find a record of Alpa (3) Buck King's death about 1834. We have not found a record of John King after he left VT for Ohio. We searched NH vital records where Alpa is reported to have died, but we found no record of her death.

Edward John Leach's parents were John Crum Leach and Mary C. Green. We have been unable to find the names of John's parents as we are unable to secure a copy of his 1905 death certificate from the State of North Dakota.

Mary Green Leach was born in 1830 in Shelburne, VT. Her parents were Rufus Green and Betsey Weed who were married in 1807. Betsey's parents were John Weed and Dolly Phelps. They are buried in the main cemetery in Hinesburg, VT. Dolly's parents were probably Lemuel and Dorothy Phelps from Pittsfield, MA. Dorothy Phelps is buried with Elijah Phelps and his family in Shelburne, VT. An early land record found in Hinesburg, VT, stated that John Weed was from Pittsfield, MA. We assume that Elijah Phelps was a brother of Dolly Phelps Weed.

Land records show that Rufus Green sold property to John Weed, his father-in-law, for $800 on January 9, 1835. We suspect that Betsey, Rufus and their three younger children migrated to Wisconsin during the late 1830's. The earliest Wisconsin record of them that we found shows Betsey Weed Green living with Melville, Ira and Ada, his wife, in Southport, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. The earliest date that we found John Crum Leach in Wisconsin was on the 1855 State Census. He was living in Somers, Kenosha County.

Ira, Melville, and Mary Green were all born after 1820. The 1820 census shows older males and females living in the Rufus Green household. We speculate that the older children stayed behind when Rufus, Betsey, and their younger children moved West.

Mary and John Leach and their daughter, Hattie, are buried in Mound Cemetery in Racine, Wisconsin.

If you have any documents, family bibles with entries of vital dates and names, and/or birth, death or marriage records, we would appreciate a copy.

Sincerely,

Ed, Sally, and Betty

Dear Cousins,

I wanted you to know that my mother passed away June 27. She was at home, comfortable, unafraid - at peace.

I was fortunate to be with her and she hugged my husband Loren and our boys, Ben and Graeme.

She enjoyed the family ancestry research you have done and looked forward to hearing from you.

I hope this finds you well.

As always,

Dear Lois:

You helped me locate the burial sites for John Crum Leach + Mary C. Green(e)) Leach two years ago. They are buried in Mound Cemetery as are many other Leach/Green(e) ancestors.

Ms. Ellen Pedraza, University of Wisconsin - Parkside, said that you might be able to do some research for me at Parkside.

Every attempt to locate parents' name + birth place in New York for John Crum Leach has proven a dead end. We have searched deed records and vital records in both Kenosha + Racine. Ms. Pedraza sent me copies of pages from the Racine City directory for 1883 - 1891. Some interesting circumstantial evidence surfaced between John Crum Leach + George W. Leach + Eugene Leach of Racine. For a time, they worked at the same place; and they attended the same Methodist Church after John C + Mary Leach moved from Somers to Racine about 1883.

How much do you charge to do research? If you have time, I would possibly like to you do 2 or 3 hours checking for me.

SEARCHING FOR THE PARENTS OF JOHN CRUM LEACH BORN APRIL 8, 1827 SOMEWHERE IN NEW YORK

John Crum Leach born April 8, 1827, somewhere in New York, died August 12, 1905, Havana, Sargent Co., ND. (We were not able to secure a death certificate from the State of ND. The obituary found in a Racine, WI, newspaper stated that he was born in New York. No obituary was found in Sargent Co., ND, newspapers.)

A short biography mentioned that John came West in 1851 and located in Kenosha Co., WI. He lived in Kenosha and Racine Counties until he moved to Sargent Co., ND, in the early 1890's. His younger son, Edward John Leach, had settled in Dakota Territory in the 1880's.

John married Mary C. Greene in 1855 in Kenosha, Kenosha Co., WI. Mary was born January 4, 1830 in Shelburne, Chittenden Co., VT. Mary died in Havana, Sargent Co., ND, March 30, 1909. (We secured her death record from ND.)

John and Mary had three children who were born in Wisconsin. They were William H., born 1856; Hattie May, 1858; and Edward John, 1863. We feel that the first names of their children may be significant. Was William named for John's father and Hattie May for his mother? Mary's parents were Rufus and Betsey (Weed) Greene.

Census records give the birth state of John's father as NH and his mother's birth state as VT.

We have exhausted the usual sources of information such as checking all the Leaches in the NY 1850 Census Index in the hope of finding a 23 year old John living with his parents, studying the 3 volume Leach Genealogy by F. Phelps Leach, visiting cemeteries, looking for other Leach relatives in WI, placing queries in genealogy publications, corresponding with other Leach researchers, and checking church records in Havana, ND, and Racine, WI.

We feel that John Crum Leach's middle name probably or possibly came from his mother's maiden name. With this thought in mind, we put the Leaches and Crums listed in the 1820 Census Index on a county map of NY. Leaches and Crums were both in the same five towns in 1820. They were in Plainfield, Otsego Co. (1 Leach, 7 Crum), Chenango, Broome Co. (1 Leach, 1 Crum), Groton, Tompkins Co., (1 Leach, 1 Crum), Lyons, Ontario Co., (2 Leach, 1 Crum), and Otselic, Chenango Co. (1 Leach, 2 Crum) We have enclosed a copy of the map and a copy of the 1820 and 1830 census data for these families.

We checked the 1830 Census Index and found 36 Leach families in NY who had sons under 5 years old. (John Crum Leach would have been 3 years old in 1830.)

Do you have any ideas about where we might find information concerning a Leach/Crum (Crumb) marriage before John's birth in 1827. We feel that there might be some information in deed records, local cemeteries, or other sources available in your area.

Are people available who might be willing to do some checking for us? How much would this service cost?

We have looked for so long for John's parents that any help or ideas will be greatly appreciated.

Edward and Betty Leach, 4916 Vista Way, Friday Harbor, WA 98250

September 10, 1988

Addendum to update of September 5, 1988. Written in response to the question, How do I fit in?

We apologize for not being more explicit on the generations after Edward and Elizabeth Leach.

As we work with this family study, the people actually become "alive" for us; and it easy to assume that those with whom we are communicating know all the details, too.

We would like to take a moment now to fill in the gaps for you.

Edward John Leach was born in 1861 in Somers, Kenosha County, Wisconsin. His parents were John Crum Leach and Mary C. Green. They had three children.

(1) William H. Leach, b. 1856, m. Emma Elizabeth Kingman, 1878, d. 1926.
(2) Hattie M. Leach, b. 1858, remained single, d. 1935.
(3) Edward John Leach, b. 1861, m. Elizabeth King, 1888, d. 1936

Elizabeth King was born in 1869 (census records show that she was 8/12 years old as of the first day of June, 1870.) in Avoca, Pottawatamie County, Iowa . Her parents were Samuel Ashley King and Hannah E. Studwell. They were married in 1853 and had six children.

(1) Horace George King, b. 1853, reported to have emigrated to Canada, no further data at this time.
(2) Jay King, b. 1856, m. (1) Nell Hall, (2) Elizabeth Stuart, d. 1920.
(3) Alpa King, b. 1857, m. Charles Sprouse, d. 1943.
(4) William King, b. 1860, m. ______________, d. 1902.
(5) Mary A. King, b. 1864, m. Mahlon Kann, d. 1933.
(6) Elizabeth King, b. 1869, m. Edward John Leach, 1888, d. 1937.

Jay, William, Mary, and Elizabeth are buried in the Britton Cemetery approximately one mile west of Britton, SD.

Samuel Ashley King, b. 1825, was the third child of John King and Alpa M. H. or (M. M.) Buck. At this time, we do not know the name of Hannah Studwell's parents, but we are accumulating data on the Studwells; and we hope to make a break through soon.

We know that Samuel Ashley King moved with his family to Dakota Territory about 1883. At this time, we are not sure when Edward John Leach and his parents moved to Dakota Territory. The 1870 census showed Edward Leach in Kenosha County, Wisconsin, but his parents did not show up on the 1870 Wisconsin census.

We do know, though, that Edward Leach and Elizabeth King were married in Britton, Marshall County, SD, in 1888. (Havana, ND, is one mile north of the SD border.)

Edward and Elizabeth Leach had five children.

(1) Mabel E. Leach, b. 1889, m. William W. Hastings in 1909, d. __________, two children, Willard Hastings, b. __________, m. ____________________, Elizabeth ? Hastings, b. _____________.

(2) John S. Leach, b. 1891, m. Kate P. Macy, 1916, d. ________, two children, John Leach, b. ________, d. 1984?, William King Leach, b. 1920, d. 1985.
(3) Samuel Jay Leach, b. 1892, m. Jessie Lillian Jordan, 1927, d. 1945, one child, Jean Harriet Leach, b. 1936.
(4) Edward James Leach, b. 1896, m. Vera Eleanor Chandler, 1918, d. 1963. Vera Eleanor Chandler Leach, d. 1932, five children, Jane, b. 1919, d. 1968, Vera Eleanor, b. 1920, Betty Lou, b. 1924, d. 1984, Edward James Leach, Jr., b. 1925, Sally Ann, b. 1927.
(5) Leola Elizabeth Leach, m. Rex Reginald Hyde, 1936

As our ancestors moved westward from VT, MA, and CT, we have problems securing data. In many states, such as NY, PA, OH, IA, WI, MI, ND, and SD, vital records--birth, marriage, death, and divorce records--were not kept with any regularity until the late 1800's.

It becomes necessary to piece information together from land records, wills, probates, family bibles, pictures, census data (The 1890 census was destroyed by fire in Washington, D.C.), published and unpublished genealogies (which must always be checked for accuracy), church records, cemetery records and cemetery visits, and Mormon records especially the IGI file, the International Genealogical Index, which contains millions of names and is available in most Mormon Churches.

The IGI file often furnishes good leads, but they must be checked for accuracy. The printed word may be incorrect as its accuracy depends on the thoroughness of the researchers. All findings must be confirmed with original documents whenever they are available.

Our sources in VT have sent us valuable information concerning Daniel Buck this week. We have a copy of his pension papers plus a copy of pertinent pages from a Supplement--Buck History and Genealogy. This genealogy gives Daniel Buck's parents as Thomas Buck, Jr., and Jane Seymour, of Hebron, CT. They had five sons; and Daniel, the third son, was born 09 November, 1753. Thomas Buck, Daniel's grandfather, was the eldest son of Isaac and Frances Buck of Scituate, MA. His grandmother's name was not given in this genealogy.

We received copies of several pages from a History of Norwich. The following quotation stated, "In 1793 and '94, the town sent Mr. Buck to the legislature, and he was each year chosen speaker of the house. In 1794, he was elected to represent the eastern district of Vermont in the fourth Congress of the United States, which assembled at Philadelphia December 7, 1795." Apparently, he served as speaker of the state legislature not of the U.S. House of Representatives. He served in the U. S. Congress during George Washington's second administration.

As we study these documents, we will learn more about Daniel Buck. We must now try to obtain his Revolutionary War record from the National Archives in Washington, D.C.

We hope this clarifies your place as a descendant of Edward John Leach and Elizabeth King.

We have enclosed a copy of the current ancestor chart, and we will keep you informed from time to time concerning our progress.

If you have information which will fill in some of our blanks or will add to our fund of knowledge, we would like to hear from you.

Sincerely,

Ed, Sally, and Betty

To date we have identified 76 surnames (2 repeats) in our research. Only six of these names are on our mother's side (Chandler). The remaining 70 are from the Leach side. Of the 70 names from the Leach side, 25 are from the Leach branch, and 45 are from the King branch (grandmother, Elizabeth King Leach). We have traced one line back to Richard Warren one of the original 1620 Mayflower settlers--of which there were only 102 people. Richard Warren was also one of the signers of the Mayflower Compact.

We have carried many of these lines back into the 1600's, and several things of interest are emerging.

1. That we are descendants of at least one of the original Mayflower Pilgrims.
2. That all of the lines that we have traced go back to the mid to early 1600's. The only line that has ended in establishing immigration from Europe is the Warren line. The many other lines have thus far dead-ended with no solid evidence as to when the first member of that line arrived on American soil.
3. All 76 surnames are English (or British).
4. All 76 family names have their roots in New England. These people settled principally in Massachusetts, but some settled in Connecticut.
5. The migratory routes to the west were most commonly Massachusetts to Vermont, New Hampshire, or New York, to Ohio, to Wisconsin or Illinois, to Iowa, to Dakota Territory.
6. We and our ancestors have fought every war the United States has been involved in from the Colonial-Indian battles to the Vietnam "encounter".
7. A number of our ancestors were important political figures, e.g. Daniel Buck served as a Congressman in the Second Congress of the George Washington Administration.
8. Several of our ancestors were dissidents--some of major stature.
9. Interestingly, a few are listed as having had brushes with the law.
10. Most seem to have been restless--moving ever westward. (What's West of San Juan Island, Washington?)
11. A number were, individually or together with others, founding fathers of towns and cities that are still in existence. (Gr, gr, gr, gr, gr grandfather, John King, was the founder of Palmer, Massachusetts. In fact, the resulting village was called Kingsville until a colonial governor decided to change the name to Palmer in honor of a nephew. A river passing through Palmer is named, King River. Naturally, of greatest interest is our link to Richard Warren. We are reasonably certain that the enclosed lineage chart is correct. It gives names and approximate dates from Richard Warren to Edward Leach, Sally Latimer, and Vera Krafka.

The following are some surnames of others whom we are still tracing but who go back to the 1600's: Phelps goes back to 1627.

Important families in first settlements in Connecticut were Wright, Martin, Edwards, Parsons, Vore, Worchester. They go back to the mid-1600's.

Stebbins. Dates back to early 1600's and were one of the early Springfield, Massachusetts, settlers. They were in grandmother, Elizabeth King Leach's line.

Bliss. First appears in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1640.

Lawrence. Appeared in the early 1600's in Connecticut.

Chapin, Riley, MacRanny. Early Springfield, Massachusetts, settlers.

Williams. Found in the early 1600's in America. We have traced this surname back to about 1620. There was a Thomas Williams on the Mayflower--maybe there is a link here.

Cooley. Early Connecticut settlers.

Clough. Settlers in Amesburg, Massachusetts, in the late 1600's.

Morton. Appeared in Massachusetts in the late 1600's.

Smith. Among the very earliest Connecticut settlers in early 1600's. The Rev. Henry Smith may have been among the first to break away from the pilgrim colony because of religious differences.

Ensign. Family name of an early Smith spouse.

Hitchcock. Early Connecticut settlers.

King, Todd, Tuttle, Middlebrook, Allen, Pick, Moss. All were very early Connecticut settlers.

Doolittle. Important family in early Connecticut. Appear to have been community and church leaders.

Snead, Denman, Lawrence, Hawkes, Ashley, Glover, and Kellogg. All very early Massachusetts settlers.

Eames. Same generation as the Mayflower Warrens.

Bartlett. Came to Plymouth in 1623 and married Richard Warren's daughter.

Winsley, Weed, (another) Bartlett, Green, Lynde, Wheeler, Molten, Mills, Clark, Chadwick. All these families go back to early Massachusetts.

Studwell. Came to Connecticut from England in the early 1600's, but we don't have evidence as to when he arrived in America.

Buck, Marsh. Appear in Massachusetts in the 1630's. We have not been able to trace the date of the first arrivals.

The above 76 surnames, going back eleven generations from Vera, Sally, and Ed to Richard Warren, are exactly 7.422 percent of the total of 1,024. (Several lifetimes of research here.)

Those interested in D.A.R. connections. Four known veterans are: Oliver King, father of John King, who married Alpa M. H. Buck. Lt. Samuel Ashley, father of Colonel Samuel Ashley, Jr. and Daniel Buck, who lost an arm as a result of Revolutionary War service. We are sure there are many, many more ancestors who served in the Revolutionary War. (The above four men all had ties to Content Ashley Buck who was the mother of Alpa M. H. Buck.)

Dear Mrs. Leach:

I am replying to your letter of September 20. Although we have many resources to help you trace your family, because of the small size of our staff I cannot take the time necessary to search these records for you. An information sheet describing our collections is enclosed for your reference. I was able to do a preliminary search of some of our collections for you.

I was able to confirm, using Racine City Directories, that John Crum Lewis was in Racine from 1883-1892. Copies of those pages are enclosed.

I also searched the Statewide Index to Births, Deaths, and Marriages Registered before 1907 for the marriage of John C. Leach to Mary C. Greene, but found no entry. In the same index I found an entry for the death of a Rufus Greene who died in Rock County on October 28, 1901, Vol. 3, p. 0080. You may write to The State Historical Society of Wisconsin, Genealogy/Reference Dept., 816 State Street, Madison, WI, 53706 for a copy of the registration.

Wisconsin census records and local newspapers from the 19th and early 20th centuries are among the other resources available here. If you can supply me the 1855 index information for John Crum Leach that you mentioned in your letter, I will photocopy the actual census page for you.

Because he was buried in Racine, you may want to check the local newspapers for an obituary. The Racine Journal Times was the daily paper at that time. Microfilm copies of newspapers may be available from the interlibrary loan department of your local public library.

Elvera Belden, Librarian, Racine County Historical Society and Museum, 701 S. Main Street, Racine, WI, 53402 may be able to recommend a Racine genealogist who will do some searching in exchange for research in your area or for a fee. Lois Roepke Stein, Kenosha County Genealogical Society, 4902 52nd Avenue, Kenosha, WI, 53142 may be able to do the same in Kenosha.

Good luck with your research. Please do not hesitate to write if I can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Ellen Pedraza

and they sent one deed (copy enclosed). I have abstracted this for you. I don't know if it pertains to your John or not? This person's middle initial was "A." instead of the expected "C." As of 14 Apr 1885, both men were residents of Hennepin Co, MN, but the parcel being sold was in Sargent Co, ND.

There are many Leaches listed in the 1830 NY census index (see enclosed copies). I did not examine any of these. This can be done in the future if you wish.

There were also quite a few Leaches residing in VT as of 1830, but not as many as in NY. I went ahead and examined every Leach in the 1830 VT census records and prepared abstracts for each household (see enclosed yellow sheets). Your John Crum Leach was said to have been born in VT according to the death record for his son, Edward John Leach. How accurate this information is, is questionable. John Crum Leach was also said to have been born in NY according to his 1900 census record and the death record of his son Wm H. Leach. His 1880 census record stated that he was born in NY, as did the 1870 census. The preponderance of evidence seems to support NY as the place of birth for John Crum Leach.

As of 1830, John Crum Leach would have been aged ca.3 and should have been recorded as being aged under 5 by the 1830 census taker. Per chance he and his family was in VT as of 1830, one of the following might pertain? The following households in VT had children present who were aged 5 or under (males):

Joseph Leach in	Windham Co
Wm Leach	Orleans Co
Samuel	Caledonia Co

Gentlemen:

Our great grandfather, John C. Leach, is buried in your cemetery in Block 28, Lot 95, Grave No. 5.

We have tried to secure a death record and an obituary for our great grandfather but to no avail. North Dakota has no record of his death.

We have arrived at a dead end, and we are hopeful that your records will show the place of birth (city, county, state) and his parents' names. We are unable to proceed with our genealogy study until we have his birthplace. His parents' names are extremely important, too.

We will appreciate any information you can provide us. I have enclosed a self-addressed, stamped envelope for your use in answering our request.

Very truly yours,

Betty Leach

Hi Betty,

John Leach was found in Hillcrest Cemetery, Parishville, NY. Age 47, died Feb. 2, 1840. No listing of any wife.
He is buried with a bunch of Brownell family members. I copied the page from microfilm so you'll be able to see all of them. I found David & family & also Silas & his wife but will just hand over the paperwork when I see you & Ed. All of the microfilms were looked at but there was no actual will filmed for David. Nothing on Rufus Greene or John Leach.
I still have to translate the 1845 census for Hopkinton & will get that done before I leave. It looks like John Crum Leach was living with David Leach at that time. He is not named but a male of his age is living there & David only had female children, so it must be John.

I've been very ill since Sept. 10th. A head cold turned into bronchitis & I had to take an antiobiotic. I had a severe allergic reaction to that medication & it caused blisters all over my body, along with a circulation problem in my right leg. I had an ultrasound to see if there is a blood clot but there isn't, so I'm taking Ibuprofren at 800mg to kill the pain in that leg. I still can't bend at the knee either. For the blisters, I have to take Benedryl in order to prevent anymore from sprouting. For those that are already on my body, I have to be very careful because if they break open, that makes me suseptible to bacterial infection. I'm keeping Neosporin on hand & will have to bandage any open sores. This entire ordeal has been a nightmare. I'm walking around in a fog most of the time because both the Ibuprofen & Benedryl cause drowsiness.

I'm still flying out next Wednesday in spite of my problems because Tara didn't pay the insurance cost for a cancelled trip and I want to get away anyway.

Sandy

Dear Ed and Betty Leach,

We have read your letter and looked over the history that you sent us.

According to our records and the information that we have about the history of Hopkinton, we can't help you with the names of John Crum Leach's parents. We do know that he is not part of our Leach family.

However, we do know that Silas H. Leach who married Elvira Goodell is not related to your Leach family. He is from our Leach family. He is the son of Abraham Leach who apparently lived in Clintonville, New York. Silas H. Leach had two children, a boy named John H. Leach who is our grandfather and was born Dec. 11, 1845 and is buried at the Mound Hill Cemetery in Nicholville, New York. John H. Leach married Elizabeth Goulden. Silas H. Leach also had a daughter named Ellen Leach who never married. She was born July 8, 1850. Our father who is the son of John H. Leach was Paul Silas Leach and was born April 17, 1900 and died May 3, 1967. He married our mother Ruth Penina Trask who was born April 21, 1900 and died Feb. 28, 1991. They are both buried at the Mound Hill Cemetery in Nicholville, New York.

We are sorry that we can't help you more with your family and wish you good luck in your endeavors to answer your questions about your family!

Yours truly,

Elizabeth Desjardins

Ed, do you know if your Aunt Leola Leach who married Rex R. Hyde, ended up in CA? I found this in the Social Security Death Index: Leola E. Hyde, born Sept. 10, 1908; died Nov. 26, 2003 in Roseville, Placer Co., CA.

There was also something for a Rex R. Hyde in the CA Death Index: born Aug. 24, 1906 Oklahoma; died Feb. 7, 1972 Alameda Co., CA

Here's an interesting discovery. When comparing the 1840 & 1850 census records for David Leach in Hopkinton NY, it's very clear that David was born abt. 1817 because his age shown in 1850 is 33. That would make him abt. 23 in 1840 but what's very interesting is that there is a 10-14 yr. old male in his household that year! Could this be his brother John C. Leach, who would have been 13 yrs. old that year? This male child is not David's child.

*one male 10-14; one male 20-29
one female 15-19

1850
David 33 born VT
Mary 30 b. VT
Frances 6 b. NY
Ellen 5 b. NY

If we could just find out who the parents of David were, it would be a slam-dunk. Do you know who David's parents were?

Dear Dale,

Thank you for your reply. I'll jot down a few random thoughts I have had since receiving it.

Yes, we are cousins. Probably twice removed. I know Dick and my father were cousins. Others that I can remember seeing when a child: Gertie, Clara and Mattie who was married to my mother's half brother, so I always called her "Aunt" too.

My grandfather, Jenje, and father, Reimer (Ralph) were the only survivors to come to America since the grandmother and two children died of T.B.

How I wish I had asked more questions when father was living. He lived to be 80.

I was surprised to read Donald Chase's obituary in our paper. I did not know he was living here.

I have been to Europe twice in 1929 and 1977 but failed to get up to Leeuwarden. There is never enough time. We still talk of going back and checking on our heritage. (my husband is Scotch.

Before our last trip I attended the U. of Minnesota to study the Dutch language. I was surprised to find that I already knew most of the words, thanks to my maternal grandmother. I was her namesake, Elkje

Our paths must have crossed a few times. Our mother took us to Los Angeles for a year when we were in high school — I guess she thought we'd soak up more culture than we would in Ashton. I attended Univ. of S. Dakota, taught Spanish and French at Sioux City Married a Sioux Citian, Moved to St Louis Park, Mn. thirty years ago. I attended Summer Sessions at Univ. of Mexico and cultivated a liking for it will be there February 4.

I was delegate to P.E.O Supreme in 1957 at Denver — long time ago but still a high light.

We had two daughters just like my folks so no one will carry on the name from here

My mom and Dad went to Texas with the Zoodsmas around 1919 ~~but~~ on a land excursion but did not invest.

I didn't realize until I saw your "tree" that the Vanderfeens were in it. Fred was a tenant on one of my father's farms for years and his Son, Jay, just bought some of the land. We had occasion to call on them recently.

By the way, Dorothy Zoodsma should remember me! Please greet her if you have occasion to see her.

I must write Esther Graham now to tell her what a great sleuth she turned out to be.

I wish you could see how down-town Minneapolis has grown. Right now every-thing is covered with snow. I guess will live through it. you'd never believe the new building. You know, I presume, that Donaldson burned down a year ago. I don't know when you lived here but you probably know all about the skyways.

Enough, wouldn't you say?

Yours truly

Elsie

Wed. a.m.

Thank you for the copies of obits. sent to me, Betty. There is one error: when Aunt Hattie died in 1935, she had two brothers living. William Leach's name was omitted. I met and was entertained by him when I visited Fannie & Harrison Greene in Racine in June, 1936.

I shall try to write this weekend. Much doing: Arlene's father is worse so she is going to Vancouver. Deb & Lou are moving to Seattle. Details later. Love,

Ladies & Gentlemen:

My great grandfather, John Crum Leach, died in Havana, ND, on August 12, 1905. We are hoping to find an obituary for John Leach.

John Leach lived in Havana for about 10 years, and he was the father of Edward John Leach who had lived in Havana since about 1888. Edward John Leach died in Havana on August 5, 1936.

Mary C. (Greene) Leach, John Crum Leach's wife, died in Havana on the 30th of March 1909. Elizabeth (King) Leach, wife of Edward John Leach died in Los Angeles, California, on the 21st of January 1937. Edward & Elizabeth Leach are buried in the Britton Cemetery.

Does your newspaper or earlier papers that served Sargent County have an Archives or newspapers on microfilm that might have printed an obituary for the Leaches?

The most important obituary is for John Crum Leach who died on the 12th of August 1905.

If obituaries are available for the above-mentioned ancestors, we will be glad to pay for the costs involved in sending copies to us.

We have really hit a brick-wall in our search for information about my great grandfather, John Crum Leach; and we would appreciate any help you can give us.

Sincerely,

Betty Leach

Dear Ms. Leach:

Thank you for your patience in awaiting this reply. We have checked all our indexes, and have come up with quite a bit of information for you.

I am enclosing copies of the title page and pages 104-105 of Early History of the Town of Hopkinton, by Carlton E. Sanford [1903], which detail the family of Rufus Greene. That same book includes transcriptions of the diaries of Elisha Risdon, an early settler of Hopkinton. The entry for 6 Apr 1847 [page 392] says "Mr. Rufus Greene died to-day, been sick about six years, endured a great deal of suffering." The entry for the 8th says "Mr. Greene buried today."

Hopkinton vital records from a brief early period of record-keeping [1847-50] show Rufus Green, died 7 April 1847, age 60, married, consumption.

If you wish to follow up further on any of this information, under the same research terms, please let us know. I am also enclosing information on St. Lawrence county municipal historians, the Historical Association, and the St. Lawrence Valley Genealogical Society. Good luck in your future researches.

Sincerely, Norm Young

Of the North Part of the

showing lands as originally deeded by the proprietors to the earliest settlers. Compiled from sundry ancient maps and from records of deeds in the St. Lawrence County Clerk's office by C. N. Reynolds, 1901.

Between the two Stars was the First Road, soon abandoned.

Scale: ⏜ equals 40 Chains.

been formed December 20, 1828, of this name, which was taken from the scriptures.

The first town meeting was held at the house of Nathaniel Kent, at which the following were elected:

William Teall, supervisor; Benjamin Healy, clerk; Wilkes Richardson, Isaac C. Pool, Silas Williams, assessors; Simeon Peterson, Jesse Worden, Shubael Parker, commissioners of highways; Wilkes Richardson, Robert Gotham, Henry Tanner, commissioners of schools; Benjamin Healy, Aaron Teall, C. D. Morehouse, inspectors of schools; Martin L. Cook, John Matoon, overseers of poor; Charles D. Redfield, collector; Ariel Wrisley, Charles C. Redfield, constables.

Supervisors.—1830-2. William Teall; 1833, Reuben L. Willson; 1834-6, Harry Tanner; 1837, Silas Williams; 1838-9, Henry P. Cook; 1840, Nathaniel Kent; 1841-2, H. P. Cooke; 1843-7, Silas Williams; 1848-51, Seymour Thatcher; 1852, David W. Weeks.

The first settlement in this town was begun by James Taylor, several years before the war, in the western part of the township of Fitz William, and near the line of Gouverneur. George Davis, James Farr, Philemon Stewart, Ariel Inman and Rufus Hopkins had settled in the town previous to 1812. Those who located on township No. 4, did so without previously making an arrangement with an agent, as none had been then appointed. David McCollom, from Rutland county, Vt., but then from Canada, came in 1812; Roger Story, in 1813; German Southerland, in 1816. The first saw mill was erected, in 1818, on Elm creek, in the present village of Hermon, by Milton Johnson, from Russell The first death in the town was that of Thomas Farr. In 1819, a grist mill and distillery were erected, in what is now the village of Hermon. by Milton Johnson. The latter was kept up till 1832 or 1833. The first religious meetings in town were held in 1811, by the Rev. Mr. Wright, a missionary from Massachusetts. The first schools were kept in the house of David McCollom, near the village of Hermon, in winters of 1817-18, by William D. Moore; and 1818-19, by Wesley McCollom. The first road opened through the town, was from De Kalb to Russell, during the war. The next was from the present village of Hermon, to De Kalb, in 1818. The settlers suffered rather more than the usual share of distress from the famine which ensued from the cold season of 1816. During the war, the settlement of the town was checked, and numbers left the country, from fear of Indian incursions. In 1822, 3, 4, 5, the town settled quite rapidly, and during the latter year, the numbers of settlers increased more rapidly than in any other. The second mill in town was built on Elm creek, one mile above the present village of Hermon, by Abram Fisk. In the following year, Amos Marsh bought the premises and erected a grist mill. From him the settlement in this vicinity was named Marshville. William Teall opened a store in 1823, in the northern edge of the town, and soon after William Martin commenced the first mercantile business in the village of Hermon. This place on Lay's map of 1817, is named Eastburnville, which it never bore among the inhabitants. The village of Hermon is a thriving and growing place, and has a direct plank road communication with Ogdensburgh, Canton, &c., and the Potsdam and Watertown rail road will pass between it and De Kalb.

The county records show the incorporation of the cemetery associations in this town, viz:

Hermon Hill Burying Ground Association.—January 18, 1851, Peter Clintsman, Calvin Rhodes, P. D. Miller, Chester Winslow, J. B. Miller, R. M. Hall, trustees.

Religious Societies.—The Methodist, Baptist, Christian and Presbyterian sects, have or have had organization in town. In 1826, Elder James Spooner, formed a small church of the Christian order, which once had 70 but now only 30 members. Elder J. Starkey, has the pastoral care at present, and for the past twenty years, has filled the office.

The First Baptist Society of the town of Hermon, was incorporated Dec. 3, 1845. Horatio Marsh, Daniel V. Babcock, Edward Maddock, Wm. E. Tanner, Thedorus Frisby and Orle Gibbins, trustees.

The First Society of the Methodist Church, in the town of Hermon, was incorporated November 1, 1847. Samuel I. Bingham, Seymour Thatcher, Joseph H. Beard, Lorenzo H. Sheldon, Orin Nichols, Timothy B. Hatch and Daniel McIntyre, trustees. These societies each erected in Hermon village, in 1848, a church edifice, costing about $1400 each The Methodist church is furnished with a fine toned bell.

HOPKINTON

Was erected March 2, 1805, from Massena, and included Islington and Catharineville, and so much of Chesterfield as was annexed to the town of Massena. The first town meeting was to be held at the house of Eliakim Seeley. All the remainder of Massena in the second tract, without the bounds above mentioned, were annexed to Hopkinton, which was declared to be a part of St. Lawrence county. By the erection of Lawrence and Parishville, it has been reduced to its present limits, which alone are sufficient for a small county, although the settled part is a strip scarcely four miles wide across the north end. It embraces the most of 14, and the whole of 15, 12, 8, 9, 5, 6, 2, 3, of the second tract of the Great purchase. The town was named in compliment to Judge Hopkins, the first settler, and a man of much prominence in the early history of the county. A biographical notice will be given in this work. The title to No. 14, passed from McCormick to Macomb, June 24, 1801, by a deed for 23,886 acres, and a part (7,675 acres,) from A. Macomb to A. M. Jr., January 1, 1808.

At the town meeting held March 4, 1806, Roswell Hopkins was elected supervisor; Henry McLaughlin, clerk; Amasa Blanchard, Joseph Armstrong, Reuben Post, assessors; A. Blanchard, Seth Abbot, overseers of poor; Abraham Sheldon, constable and collector; A. Sheldon, R. Post, H. McLaughlin, commissioners of highways; Eli Squier, Oliver Sheldon, A. Blanchard, fence viewers; Oliver Sheldon, pound keeper.

Supervisors.—1806, R. Hopkins; 1807, Benjamin W. Hopkins; 1808, Henry McLaughlin; 1809, R. Hopkins; 1810, B. W. Hopkins; 1811, J. R. Hopkins; 1820-2, Thadeus Laughlin; 1823-6, Jonah Sanford; 1827-9, Isaac R. Hopkins; 1830-2, Joseph Durfey; 1833, I. R. Hopkins; 1834-5, T. Laughlin; 1836, Phineas Durfey; 1837, Eliakim Seeley; 1838, T. Laughlin; 1839, I. R. Hopkins; 1840-1, Clark S. Chittenden; 1842-4, Elias Post; 1845, Gideon Sprague; 1846-7, Clark S. Chittenden; 1848-9, E. Post; 1850-1, C. S. Chittenden; 1852, Joseph B. Durfey.

Memoranda from the Records.—1806. A committe appointed to decide upon a lawful fence, and report rules for the range of domestic animals. 1807, wolf bounty, $10. 1808, Henry Mc. Laughlin, Amasa Blanchard and Seth Abbott, appointed to prescribe rules for regulating the manner in which inoculation for the small pox shall be administered in town. $60 voted to buy a set of statute laws and blank books. At an adjourned meeting in March, $100 voted for destroying wolves, $5 bounty offered; $250 voted for the poor.

1809. $100 for the poor, and various sums often larger in following years. Wolf bounty $5.

1810. Bounty on wolves, $10, and $100 to destroy these animals. At a special meeting in June, $500 previously appropriated to bridges, given to the St. Lawrence Turnpike Co., on condition that the road be located in a certain route.

1811. At a special meeting the legislature petitioned to tax the town to aid the North West Bay road. Also, to petition for a lottery to raise the sum of $10,000 to repair this road; also, to pray for exemption from service on juries, during four years. $100 voted to encourage the destruction of wolves, and $5, "to be paid out of the above sum, for each wolf's scalp, capable of doing mischief." The same bounties in 1812-13-14-15. In 1816, $50 raised for wolf bounties, and a bounty of $10; with $5 "for every wolf's whelp scalped and destroyed in town."

1817. $10 wolf bounties; 75 cents for two bounties and $10 appropriated for this business. $50 to pay T. Meacham, for killing 2 panthers.

1818. $10 voted to pay for the destruction of every catamount in the town.

1819. Five hog constables elected; $20 panther bounty; $10 wolf bounty; $1 fox bounty.

1820. $10 wolf bounty; $15 panther bounty; $1 per hundred for the destruction of mice, $25 said to be paid for the latter.

1321. Bounties offered as follows; wolves $5; wolf whelps, $2·50; panthers, $15; their young, $7·50; foxes, $2; young foxes, $1.

1824. $10 wolf bounties, and $5 for wolf whelps.

1825. $5 for wolves, and half this sum for their young.

1835. Three hog constables elected.

In May, 1802, Roswell Hopkins, of Vergennes, Vt., having bought a part of Islington, of Hammond, came into town to make a settlement accompanied by Samuel Goodale, B. W. Hopkins, his son, Jared Dewey, Eliphalet Branch and Joel Goodale.

In June, having made arrangements for clearing land, Mr. H. started to return to Vermont, on horseback, by a line of marked trees, and in fording the St. Regis river, which was swollen by heavy rains, his house was partly thrown over by the violence of the current, and his portmanteau, containing in one end the provisions for his journey, and in the other, several hundred dollars in specie, were swept down stream, and lost. At the approach of winter, the party returned to Vermont. In March, 1803, Judge Hopkins, Abraham Sheldon, Eli and Ashbel Squire, moved their families into town. The first birth occurred in December, 1803, in the family of Mr. Sheldon. In this season, the first grist mill was erected by Mr. Hopkins, on Lyd brook, near the present village of Hopkinton. During the first year, and until the mill was built, the settlers were obliged to go to the Long Saut, on the Canadian shore, to mill. In addition to the foregoing, Thomas Remington, Gaius Sheldon, Reuben Post, Eliakim Seeley, Henry McLaughlin. Thadeus McLaughlin, Horace Train, Jasper Armstrong and Seth Abbott, came in 1804 and 1805, many of them with families, and from this time the settlement grew rapidly. The following interesting account was published in the Northern Cabinet, Sept. 3, 1845, and is understood to have been writien by Elisha Risden, a pioneer settler and surveyor:

"The first settlers of Islington, now Hopkinton, came by the way of French Mills to St. Regis, and thence up the St. Regis river to Stockholm, and thus to their destination. Previous to 1805, the main road from the east into St. Lawrence county, passed through Chateaugay to Malone, Bangor, Moira, and Chesterfield (now Lawrence) to Stockholm, and thence to Potsdam, and on to a few new settlements beyond. A road had been opened on the western side of the St. Regis river, between Islington and Stockholm and another road from Islington, leading north east, crossed the St. Regis river, and intersected the road from Malone to Stockholm, half a mile west of Deer river. These roads were laid down with little regularity along the most favorable ground, were without bridges or causeways, and mostly impassable, except when bridged by the ice in the winter. In March 1805, there were no settlements between Islington and Deer river, nor between Deer river and Stockholm. Between Deer river and Malone a few scattered beginnings had been made. At the date above mentioned, several families moving into the county, had reached Deer river, where they were obliged to encamp, as the ice had broken up, and the river was impassable for teams. Hearing the condition of these families, Dr. Pettibone, of Stockholm, sent a message to Roswell Hopkins, Esq., of Islington, inviting the young men of that settlement, to meet those from Stockholm, at the river, and erect a bridge. The request was immediately circulated, and although at 10 o'clock at night, they mustered their forces and started on the expedition. The St. Regis river had first to be crossed, as the ice bridge had been broken up, and this was effected by wading on horseback at midnight, and with infinite peril, the rapid and swollen river. The night was dark and cloudy; there were but three horses to transport the party of nine men, which was at length effected at six times crossing, and the company met that from Stockholm at the appointed place, early in the morning, and at once proceeded to plan and execute a good and substantial log bridge—the first one across Deer river—at a point about one hundred rods below the present village of Lawrenceville. The party from Islington, on their return home reached the St. Regis several hours sooner than the time appointed for the horses to be sent to meet them, and as the river had subsided somewhat, one or two of the company cut each of them a pole to support themselves against the current, and with their boots and axes slung to their backs, forded the river by wading. The horses were sent to transport the remainder, and the whole party returned without accident. From Deer river to Islington, was 8½ miles by the ford, and 15 by Stockholm. From Esq. Hopkins's to the ford 1¼ miles. Mr. Hopkins was remarkably attentive in assisting settlers to cross this ford, and kept a watch to give notice when teams arrived, and the young men could go down with two yoke of oxen and a strong sled, cross over to them, fasten their sleighs with withes and ropes to the top of the sled, and so recross. In crossing, the empty sled would float, and the ferrymen were obliged to wade by its side and work with all their might to keep it from floating down stream. The sleighs were lightened of their contents, hoisted with levers and skids on to the sled, bound fast, reloaded, and crossed over. Difficulty was often experienced in keeping the load upright, and the screams of the women and children as their craft veered and floundered along the angry stream, formed a picture strikingly characteristic of primitive times and known only to pioneers. In April of this year the sleighing ceased, but people continued to arrive on horseback and on foot, who were often disappointed at the difficulties in crossing, and in several instances travelers coming to Islington, after reaching the ford, retraced their steps and proceeded to their destination by the very circuitous route of Stockholm. To obviate these difficulties a foot bridge was built at the ferry, which although rude and temporary was very acceptable. The ford way road is now occupied by cultivated fields, and its route exists only in the recollections of the few remaining pioneer settlers.

In May 1807, the first death (that of an infant) occurred. Previous to this there had been 26 births. In 1809, Abram Sheldon built the first framed house. In 1807 the town contained 48 persons capable of voting for senators. In 1810 a social library was incorporated, 45 persons having subscribed $115 for the purpose. The first trustees were Roswell Hopkins, Amasa Blanchard, Henry McLaughlin, Rueben Post, Seth Abbott, Stephen Langworthy, Jasper Armstrong, Benjamin W. Hopkins. Dr. Stephen Langworthy was the first physician who settled in town, in a very early day. The second was Dr. Gideon Sprague, from New Haven, Addison Co., Vt., who settled in town in 1811, and is at present the second oldest practitioner in St. Lawrence county. Dr. E. Baker, of Canton, settled thore in 1806. In 1824, Isaac R. Hopkins built a saw mill on the St. Regis river, north of the village, and at the raising it was christened Fort Jackson, which the little village at this place still bears. There are here two churches, saw mill, clothing works, starch factory, &c., and in the vicinity a valuable quarry of Potsdam sandstone, which has been used for lining several furnaces. This beautiful building material should supersede every other in the vicinity, where it can be procured, and would be found more cheap, durable and elegant than any other that the country affords. Blocks of any convenient size and very uniform, can be readily procured here.

On the last of February 1814, after the British party had returned from their incursion to Malone, and had arrived at French Mills, they learned from a citizen spy, who acted as their guide that a large amount of flour belonging to the United States army, was stored in a barn in the village of Hopkinton, and that there was no guard at that place to protect it. Upon this they detached Major De Heirne, of the British regular service, with Lieut. Charlton, the second in command, and about thirty soldiers, who proceeded in sleighs, by way of Moira corners, to Hopkinton, twenty-seven miles from French Mills, and arrived at that place early in the morning, before the inhabitants were up. They first posted sentinels at the door of every house, and proceeded to search for arms in every place where they might be suspected to be found, and succeeded in obtaining about twenty stand, which had been distributed among the inhabitants. It is said that several muskets were saved, by being hastily laid in a bed, which had been occupied but a few moments previous, and thus eluded the search that was made for them. Their case has been described by the poet.

> "'Tis odd, not one of all these seekers thought,
> And seems to me almost a sort of blunder,
> Of looking in the bed as well as under."

They found some three hundred barrels of flour stored in a barn owned by Judge Hopkins, and occupied by Dr. Sprague, but having no teams for conveying away more than half of that quantity, they began to destroy the remainder, but being dissuaded by the inhabitants, they desisted, and distributed the remainder among the citizens. During the brief sojourn of this party, they conducted themselves with strict propriety, and sacredly respected private property of every kiud, using or receiving nothing for which they did not offer compensation. No parole was required of the inhabitants. Upon the passage of the detachment of the American army through Hopkinton, on their way from French Mills to Sackett's Harbor, but a very short time previously, the officers in command were importuned by Judge Hopkins and others, for the privilege of carrying the military supplies in their village further west, to a place of greater safety, dreading the very event which soon after happened. They offered to take their pay from the flour, at such prices as would be just and equitable, but no one appeared to feel themselves authorized to order the removal, and it was not effectual. The surrounding country would have readily furnished volunteers sufficient for this duty, and gladly undertaken it, had they been allowed the privilege.

In 1816, snow and frost occrrued in every month in the year, and crops of all kinds, except grass and oats, were nearly destroyed. Flour was procured with the greatest difficulty, and sold at $22 per barrel.

Thomas Meacham, a noted Nimrod, who spent many years in hunting, in St. Lawrence and Franklin counties, died near this town, on the North west Bay road, May 7, 1849, aged 79. He kept an account of his successes, which resulted as follows: wolves 214; panthers, 77; bears, 210; deer, 2550. Mr. Meacham would relate many amusing anecdotes. His traps were always out and one day in examining them he found two wolves and a bear, and shot another on the way, making, as bounties then were, a profit of $185. A further account of this pioneer was published by Wm. H. Wallace, in his paper, the St. Lawrence Mercury, Dec. 19, 1849.

Religious Societies.—July 6, 1808, five males and six females, were organized by the Rev. John W. Church, a missionary, into a Congregational church. A society was formed Sept. 30, 1814, with Amasa Blanchard, Reuben Post and Issac R. Hopkins, trustees; Rev. Hiram S. Johnson, now of Canton, was ordained pastor, in December, 1815, and remained till 1822, when he was succeeded by the Rev. Roswell Pettibone, who was installed, July 21, 1824, and who remained till Aug., 1830. The Rev. Messrs. J. Butler, Cha's Bowles,—P. Montague, Bachelor, J. A. Northrop and E. Wood, have since been employed. The present number in the church is 84. A meeting house was built in 1827, at the cost of $2,800. Dr. Gideon, Sprague, Aaron Warner and Artemas Kent, being the building committee.

A Baptist church was formed by Eld. Rowley Sept. 11, 1808, of but 6 members. On the 12th of Sept. 1808, the sacrament of the supper was administered for the first time to the Congregational church, in the forenoon and to the Baptist church in the afternoon, in the same house. A Baptist society was formed, Feb. 17, 1818, with Abijah Chandler, Jonah Sanford, Sylvanus C. Kersey, and Samuel Eastman, trustees.

In 1815, these two societies erected a stone building for a place of worship and public business, which by a law of 1841, was repaired by a tax of $250, and now forms the village school house. On the 8th of July, 1830, the name of the Baptist church, was changed to the Hopkinton and Lawrence church, at which time they held their meetings alternately at Hopkinton and Nicholville. On the 5th of Aug., 1843, the word Hopkinton was dropped, and they have been since permanently located in Nicholville. A society of the M. E. church, was formed, Dec. 30, 1839, Josiah Smith, Martin Corey, Hiram B. Sheldon, Rufus Alden, Philip Mosher, Albert Sheldon, Bradley Adams, John Daniels, and John L. Ransom, trustees.

A Free-Will Baptist church was organized in 1844 by Elder John Sweat, and Elder Wm. Whitfield, of 16 members. This church erected a commodious house of worship in 1847, cost $1,000, dedicated Jan. 2, 1848, the sermon by Elder John W. Lewis. Elder John Sweat was chosen pastor at the organization of this church, and still retains this relation.

LAWRENCE.

This town was erected from Hopkinton and Brasher, April 21, 1828, to take effect on the 1st Monday of March, following. The first town meeting was to be held at the house of Carlton Mc Ewen. The poor moneys were to be equitably divided, and a part of the town having been formerly set off from Massena to Brasher without their knowledge or consent, and without any division of the poor fund, it was also made the duty of the supervisors of Lawrence and Massena to meet and divide this fund, in the same manner and subject to the same appeal as above stated.

The title is as follows: the proprietors to Harrison, Jan. 1, 1801, and from the latter to William Lawrence, Feb. 17, 1820. (Clerk's office Deeds, b. 5, p. 596.) Parts are now owned by D. Lynch Lawrence, a son of the above.

The town derives its name from William Lawrence, of New York, a gentleman who had spent the prime of his life as a merchant, and engaged in foreign commercial enterprises. Having retired from business, he purchased the unsold portions of Chesterfield, with the view of giving him some employment, and as he told one of his settlers to occupy his mind and prevent his time from dragging heavily, as he had been actively engaged in commerce in the four quarters of the globe, till, at the age of fifty, he found himself in circumstances which justified his retirement from active business. He died in New York, in 1824. It was his custom to spend his summers in town for two of three years before his death.

Memoranda from the Records.—Carlton McEwen, supervisor; Myron G. Peck, town clerk; James Trussell, Nathaniel Smith, Newel H. Lampson, assessors; Enos Burt, collector; James Trussell, Myron G. Peck, overseers of poor; Giles Hard, David S. Murray, John Ferris, com's of highways; Enos Burt, Warren Day, constables; George P. Farran, Samuel Bent, James Ferris, com's of schools; D. Wright, N. Higgins, David S. Murray, Levi H. Powers, inspectors of schools.

Supervisors.—1829-32, Carlton McEwen; 1833-4, George P. Farrar; 1835, C. McEwen; 1836, Myron G. Peck; 1837, Luther Whitney; 1838-9, Walter Smead; 1840, no choice, a tie between J. F. Saunders and C. McEwen, who received 140 votes each. The justice appointed the latter, who declined serving, and March 30, J. F. Saunders was elected at a special meeting; 1841, J. F. Saunders; 1842-3, Lucius Hubbard; 1844, J. F. Saunders; 1845, Jude Clark; 1846-8, C. McEwin; 1849-50, Milo L. Burnham; 1851, Peabody Newland; 1852, Noah D. Lawrence.

The first settlement, in the present town of Lawrence, was made by —— Brewer, who came in as a subagent for the proprietor, Mr.

Harrison, to show land to settlers; and located on the farm now owned by Carlton McEwen, where he erected a shanty in the summer of 1801 and remained till the summer following, when he sold out his interest and agency to Samuel Tyler. In the fall of 1806, Joseph and Samuel Tyler, from Piermont, N. H., Joseph St. Clair and Avery Sanders, from Middlesex, Vt., and Ephraim Martin from Bradford, Vt., and Abijah Chandler, from Lebanon, N. H., came in and selected farms, but did not move their families till the next spring. Having made a bargain with the agent, Judge Bailey of Chateaugay, for land, Abijah Chandler and the others above named, moved in to reside, most of them having families. Mrs. Chandler was the first white woman who came into town.

These families first came to Hopkinton by sleighs, and proceeded thence to their destination after the snow had gone. Most of them settled in the central and northern parts of the present town, except Mr. Chandler, who settled a short distance from the present village of Nicholville. In May, 1807, these families were followed by Ira Allen, James and Jonathan Pierce, and Sidney Dunton. In June, Jonathan Stevens, Ambrose Lewis and families, and Jonathan Hartwell, without his family, located in town. The latter moved on in the following spring.

In July, 1807, Jonathan, Green, and James Saunders, and D. C. Bastain, and in the same year John Howard, Asa Griffin, and John Prouty, came in. In 1808-9, the settlement was largely increased from Vermont and New Hampshire, and continued till the war, when every family but five are said to have left, and most of them never returned. From this time the settlements languished, and the pioneers were exposed to unusual hardships from the difficulty of reclaiming their lands, and bringing them under cultivation. This arose from the very level surface, which when covered by forests, was wet and swampy, but which, now it is cleared up and cultivated, forms one of the finest and most valuable agricultural districts in the county. Deer were unusually plenty, and consequently wolves. An old lady, in relating these hardships, added, that "had it not been for the deer, they must all have starved, as venison was often the only food they had."

The first school was taught in 1810, by Miss S. Tyler, and meetings were held in 1808, by a Quaker from Peru, N. Y. The first framed house was built in 1808, by Daniel Harris.

It is only since the rail road has given value to the grazing districts of this section, that this town has begun to be most rapidly developed. Lands have advanced often one hundred per cent, and this increase is not a fictitious but a real addition to their value, especially for diarying; and this class of husbandry has in itself the elements of perpetuity, for the produce of the fields mostly returned to them to refertilize the soil, and when judiciously managed, to preserve it in its original fertility. These remarks apply not to this town alone, but to Northern New York generally.

There are in Lawrence three villages and post offices, viz: Nicholville, Lawrenceville, and North Lawrence.

Nicholville is situated on the east branch of St. Regis river, where crossed by the St. Lawrence turnpike, and mostly upon the north bank, and consequently in Lawrence. In the summer of 1817, Samuel Wilson erected a saw mill on the south bank, and in 1822 a grist mill was built on the same side, but was swept off in 1830 by a flood. John Pomeroy, Eli Bush, Chester Armstrong, Calvin Converse and Horace Higgens, purchased and settled here about 1820. In 1824 a distillery, and in 1826 a stone grist mill, were built. The village is named from E. S. Nichols, of N. Y., the executor of the estate of Wm. Lawrence, who afterwards absconded with a large amount of funds belonging to a company. For this reason an effort is being made to change the name of the village and post office. The river here runs in a deep and narrow valley, and the water power is occupied by two saw mills, a grist mill, a woolen factory, a machine shop, and the usual variety of mechanic shops; and the village has about a hundred families, three stores, a tavern, and a Baptist and a Union meeting house. The Port Kent road of 75 miles, through the central part of Franklin county, commences here on the north bank, and the old Northwest Bay road (recently reopened), a short distance west, on the road to Hopkinton.

Lawrenceville is on both sides of Deer river, where crossed by the main road from Potsdam to Malone. It forms the centre of business for a rapidly growing district, and has a water power sufficient for the ordinary wants of the place. A saw mill was built here in 1809, by Ephraim Martin, but the dam was soon swept away, and no further improvement was attempted until 1821, when another was built by Charles Kellogg, and in 1822 a grist mill. A store was opened in 1822, by Josiah F. Saunders, and about 1820 an inn, by John Shepard. In 1828, Dr. John Inman, the first physician, settled in town. In 1827-8, the place began to grow, and has at present three churches, several mills, stores, and shops, a starch factory, &c., and is progressing with the surrounding country in wealth and prosperity.

North Lawrence owes its existence entirely to the rail road, and is situated on the west bank of Deer river, where it is crossed by that road. A location had first been made here many years previous, by John W. Bean, who had erected a saw mill. Chauncey Bristol was the second settler in the vicinity. There is here a depot 50 by 100 feet, which receives the business of the county north and south, three saw mills, one of them having a gang of about 30 saws, and numerous new stores, dwellings, and other buildings, sufficiently indicate its thrift and prosperity.

Religious Societies.—A Free Will Baptist church was formed July, 1838, by Elder Benjamin Bundy and David Colby, of 5 members. Elders Samuel Newland, Samuel Hart and others; and at present the former have been pastors. Present number, 37. The first Baptist evangelical society in the town of Lawrence, was formed November 19, 1840; Peabody Newland, Walter Smead and Stephen Hammond, trustees. Reorganized, May 14, 1842. The church established by the Baptists in Hopkinton, and since moved to Nicholville, now numbers 82. The names of clergymen in the order of their succession, since 1808, are Solomon Johnson, Beriah N. Leach. Silas Pratt, Peter Robinson, James M. Beeman and Elias Goodspeed, who is at present employed. A small meeting house was built in 1832, and enlarged in 1836, and in 1852, a church 40 by 50 feet, which was designed to be opened early in January, 1853. These data were kindly furnished by Myron G. Peck, Esq., of that place.

The M. E. church, of Lawrenceville, was incorporated April 6, 1842; David Blish, John Shepard, Charles Kellogg, Samuel Meacham, Chase S. Wise, John F. Carpenter and Thomas Heale, trustees. They have a church reported in the census of 1850, worth $1,200.

The Congregational church and society of Lawrenceville, incorporated August 3, 1840; Heman Shepard, Avery Colling and John W. Bean, trustees. Their church is reported in the census worth $1,600. On the 17th of August, 1852, a church of this order was formed at N. Lawrence, of about 20 members, all but two of whom withdrew from the other for this purpose. They have been recently incorporated, and are about to erect a church.

LISBON

Owes its origin to the following petition, which is said to have been intended as a preliminary to the location of the county seat in this town:

"To the Honorable the Legislature of the State of New York, in Senate and Assembly convened.

The memorial of the subscribers, for themselves, and in behalf of the settlers on the ten townships of land, situate on the river St. Lawrence, heretofore sold by the people of the state, respectfully sheweth:

That many settlers are now established on the said townships, and have already made valuable improvements thereon; that great inconvenience ensues, by reason of their remoteness from the settled parts of the state, and they are daily exposed to loss and injury in their property, by the waste and spoil committed by persons from the opposite side of the river St. Lawrence, and having no magistrates or constables among themselves, such injuries can not be redressed; that the said ten towns are situate in the counties of Montgomery, Oneida and Herkimer; that it has become highly necessary for the encouragement and prosperity of the settlers on the said townships, that they should be incorporated into one town. They therefore humbly pray, that the said townships, as described in the map, filed in the secretary's office, and known by the names of Louisville, Stockholm, Madrid, Potsdam, Lisbon, Canton, Oswegatchie, De Kalb, Hague, and Cambray, may be erected into one town, and to be known by the town of Lisbon; and that the same may be annexed to the county of Clinton; and that the town meetings of the said town may be held in the township of Lisbon, being the center township, at the house of Alexander J. Turner, and as in duty bound they will ever pray.

Uri Barber, Calvin Hubbard, James Turner, Benj. Bartlett, Samuel Allen, Ahab Herington, Daniel Herington, Jacob Hoar, Alexander Turner, Jun., John De Lance, David Zoyten (?), Festus Tracy, Jacob Pohlman, John Tibbets, Alexander J. Turner, Stillman Foote, George Foote, Peter Sharp, R. F. Randolph, John Tibbets, Jun., Wesson Briggs, Benj. Pierce, Andrew O'Neil, Benjamin Stewart.

Received in Assembly, February 9, 1801. Read and referred to Mr. Shurtliff, Mr. Norton, Mr. Danforth.

Lisbon was accordingly erected March 6, 1801, and the first town officers were as follows:

Alexander J. Turner, supervisor; John Tibbets, clerk; John Tibbets, Jr., Benjamin Stewart, Joseph Edsall, Seth Raney, William Shaw, assessors; Calvin Hubbard, Jacob Redington, Benjamin Stewart, Wesson Briggs, Jacob Pohlman, commissioners of highways; Peter Sharp, Joseph Furman, John Thurber, constables; Peter Sharp, collector; Uri Barber, Benjamin Bartlett, John Lyon, poormasters; Samuel Allen, Benjamin Galloway, Wm. Shaw, Benjamin A. Stewart, Joseph Edsall, Reuben Fields, Adam Milyer, Joseph Thurber, pathmasters; Uri Barber, George Hilman, John Tibbets, Jr., Asa Furman, John Sharp, fence viewers; Benjamin Stewart, Reuben Fields, pound keepers; Alexander J. Turner, John Tibbets, Jr., Benjamin A. Stewart, trustees for the glebe.

Supervisors.—Most of the town election records previous to 1831, having been lost, the following imperfect list of supervisors is given as the best that could be obtained:

1801, and for several years after, Alexander J. Turner; 1814–15, George C. Conant; 1816–17, James Thompson; 1818, Bishop Perkins; 1819–20, Robert Livingston; 1821–8, Wesson Briggs; 1829, John Thompson; 1830–5, G. C. Conant; 1836, Joseph Chambers; 1837, G. C. Conant; 1838–9, David C. Gray; 1840–1, Charles Norway; 1842, Wm. H. Reynolds; 1843, D. C. Gray; 1844, G. C. Conant; 1845–9, Wm. Briggs; 1850–1, Aaron Rolf; 1852, David G. Lyttle.

The following return of electors was made in 1801, when this town embraced the present limits of the ten towns. The occurrence of the name of a firm on a poll list, is novel. Except the first two, who were reported worth a freehold of the value of £100 or upwards, the remainder were returned as renting real estate worth at least forty shillings per annum:

Ogden & Ford, Elijah Carley, Steven Foot, David Race, Thomas Lee, Benjamin Willson, Kelsey Thurber, Jonathan Comstock, Wm. G. Peck, John Lyon, Jacob Pohlman, Benjamin Nickler, Major Watson, Seth Rainey, Joseph Thurber, Jeduthan Barker, Adam Milyer, Thomas J. Davies, Jonathan Ingraham, Daniel McNeal, John Smith.

PARISHVILLE

The first town meeting was directed to be held at the house of Thomas C. Colbun. The poor masters of the two towns were directed to meet and divide any moneys in the hands of the poor masters of Hopkinton.

It at present embraces Cookham (29,541 acres), and 7,971 acres of the west part of Catharineville. Wick, or No. 11, tract 2, is annexed. The first town officers were as follows:

Daniel W. Church, supervisor; Abijah Abbott, clerk; Stephen Goodman, Ira Ransom and Daniel Rockwell, assessors; Ephraim Smith, collector; Jonathan M. Derbey and Stephen Paddock, poor masters; Abel Brown, Peter Mahew and Elisha Brooks, com'rs of highways; Ephraim Smith and Matthew Wallace, constables; Peter Mayhew, Abel Brown and Elisha Brooks, fence viewers; Russell Foot, pound keeper; Abel Brown, Peter Mayhew and Foster Brownell, overseers of highways.

Supervisors.—1814, Daniel W. Church; 1815, Abijah Abbott; 1816-20, Daniel Hoard; 1822, William Allen; 1823, Daniel Hoard; 1824-31, Wm. Brooks; 1850-1, Nathan Christy; 1852, William F. Gurley.

Notes from the Town Records.—1814-15-16—$5 dollars for wolves and panthers, with half this for the young of these animals. 1818, $10 offered for panthers. 1820, $15 offered for panthers, killed in town, to be proved by producing the head, with the skin and ears thereon, and by making oath to the same. $0.50 bounty for foxes and $0.25 for young foxes. 1821, $15 bounty offered for old panthers, and $7.50 for their young. $1 fox bounty, and half that sum for their young. 1826. Voted in favor of a division of county, and the formation of a new one. 1827, this action again taken, and William Allen, and Daniel Hamlin, were appointed a committee to represent the wishes of the town in a petition to the legislature. 1846. $600 voted to build or furnish a town house in the village of Parishville, to be raised in the years 1847-48, and appointed William Allen, D. S. Stevens, and E. D. Brooks, a committee to petition the legislature for the powers necessary for raising the tax. This measure was not carried into effect. 1850. The town voted against reviving the distinction between the town and county poor.

This town derives its name from David Parish, who, Dec. 2, 1808, bought the town of J. D. Le Ray de Chaumont.[*] The latter had purchased of the heirs of Wm. Constable, July 24, 1804.[†]

The first settlement was made under the direction of Daniel Hoard, as agent of Mr. David Parish. Mr. Hoard was a young man, a native of Springfield, Vermont, who with his brother Silvius Hoard, had been brought to the notice of Mr. Parish, by Gen. Lewis R. Morris, of Springfield, who had been interested in the lands afterwards purchased in St. Lawrence and Jefferson counties. Both brothers were employed as agents; the first at Parishville, and the latter at Antwerp. Mr. Hoard in the fall of 1809, surveyed and cut a road from Potsdam line to the site of Parishville village, In April 1810, he returned with Luke Brown, Isaac Tower, and Hartwell Shattuck, from Springfield, Vermont, and Levi Sawyer, from Massachusetts. These were employed during the summer, in clearing lands, and during the season, they chopped about seventy acres, and cleared forty on the site of Parishville village. A Mr. Whitmore and wife came into town this summer, to board the men engaged in clearing lands, and this woman was the first who ever came into town to reside. A line of road through to the Black river had been marked previous to this year. The route led several miles further south than the St. Lawrence turnpike was afterwards made, and passed through the township of Matildavale, now Colton. During the summer and fall of 1810, a saw mill was built by two brothers from Oneida county, by the name of Barnes. It was got in operation the same season, and used during the winter. Towards spring, the family which had first moved in went away. Soon after (March 31, 1811) Luke Brown and family moved into town, and this was the first permanent family in Parishville. He settled about two and a half miles from the line of Potsdam, on a farm he had previously purchased, and commenced improvements upon. Ira Collins, Reuben Thomas, George A. Flower, Joel Hawkins, William Thomas, Richard Newton, Abijah Abbot, —— Champlin, and —— Dagget, several of these men with families, came in and settled soon after, During the year 1811, the turnpike from the Black river settlements was cut through the town; a grist mill was built by Daniel W. Church, for Mr. Parish, and a distillery was erected and inclosed by Mr. Hoard the same season. The latter was the property of the agent, and remained such as long as he resided in town. It has been worked, with a few interruptions, nearly every year since. It was not got in operation till the spring of 1812. During the summer of 1812, a large tavern stand was erected by Mr. Church, for the proprietor of the town, costing $12.000, and during this season the place received large accessions of inhabitants, many of whom fled from Ogdensburgh, and other places on the St. Lawrence, from the danger they apprehended from the war. This morbid growth gave business and life to the settlement, which has never since been equalled; and for a time the village and surrounding country increased in population and improvements, as if by magic. A forge was built and run at an early day at its place. In 1813, this prosperity con-

Lawrence turnpike. The river here affords a considerable amount of water power. The channel is pressed into a narrow gorge scarcely ten feet wide and the river descends about 125 feet in the distance of a mile. Wick, is owned by Dr. Samuel W. Moore, of New York whose wife is Emily, a daughter of Wm. Constable. There are in this township, three school houses, several mills and about 100 families.

Religious Societies.—A Congregational church was formed Aug. 7, 1823, by a council consisting of the Rev. Messrs. M. Parmelee of Stockholm, Rev. Oliver Eastman of Parishville, Mr. Custant Southworth, licentiate of Canton, R. Pettibone, do. of Hopkinton, Mr. Henry Winchester, delegate from Madrid, and Dea. Sam'l P. Reynolds of Potsdam. It began with 11 members. C. Eastman, Moses Ordway, Tertius Reynolds, Wm. K. Talbot, Bliss Burnap, Geo. P. Everest, Milton Bradley, Enos Wood, and Bliss Burnap have been employed; those in italics having been settled as pastors. Whole number admitted up to Sept. 20, 1852, 224; of whom 90 now belong to the church. The stone church in Parishville was built in 1834, at a cost of $3000. A society was incorporated April 23, 1827, with Noran Rockwell, James Hardy, and George A. Flower, trustees.

A Baptist church was formed in October, 1823, of about 13 members, present number, 172. A society was formed April 5, 1831, with Graton Brand, Seymour Flower, and David Burdit, trustees; they have a commodious church, costing about $1950. The pastors have been the Rev. Messrs. Solomon Johnson, —— Rhodes, B. N. Leach, J. H. Greene, G. Brand, L. T. Ford, and O. W. Moxley. The last named commenced his services with this church in May, 1840, and continued them until May, 1844, when he moved to Madrid, and labored with the Baptist church there until March, 1848, when he returned to Parishville, where he still continues; and has labored longer with this church than any other minister, since its organization. They have during the intervals been supplied by the Revs. Henry Greene and W. H. Rice.

A Methodist society was formed March 10, 1828, with Luke Brown, Francis Goodale, Nathan Christy, Levi Fuller and Isaac Russell, trustees. It was reorganized Aug. 23, 1833, and Oct. 26, 1846. A chapel was built in 1846-7, worth $1000. A Wesleyan Methodist society was incorporated Dec. 6, 1843, with Luke Brown, Walter W. Bloss and Leavitt Hatch, trustees.

PIERREPONT,

Was erected from Russell and Potsdam, April 15, 1818, including the townships of Emilyville, Chaumont, Clifton Clare, and so much of Dewitt as would lie east of a continuation of the west line of said townships to the rear line of Canton. The first town meeting was directed to be held at the house of Cyrus Grannis. The towns of Emilyville and Chaumont have been annexed to Fine, in the formation of that town. The poor moneys were to be equitably divided between the towns. The portion of Dewitt included in this town, was by an act of 1807, annexed to Potsdam. This portion comprises almost the entire settled part of the town. A small part on the west belongs to the Harrison estate, and the remainder to that of the late Hezekiah Beers tinued, and extensive buildings and improvements were undertaken. During this season a building was erected at the expense of Mr. Parish for public purposes, and which has since been usually known as the academy, for which use it was originally designed. It has since been used as a town hall, school house, and place for public and religious meetings. It is a one story wooden building with single room. The first birth in the town of Parishville, was in the family of Luke Brown, in the spring of 1812. The first school was taught by Miss Harriet Bronson, in the summer of 1813, in the barn of Daniel Hoard. A school house was erected very soon after. Religious meetings were occasionally held in 1812-13, and subsequently by traveling preachers, but the first stated ministry was established by the Methodists in July 1818, at the house of Mr. L. Brown. Baptist meetings were first held by an Elder Johnson, from Jefferson county.

An affair occurred in this town, in the fall of 1812, which created much excitement at the time. A desperate character by the name of B——, living in the edge of Stockholm, had been charged with a crime which carried him to jail in Ogdensburgh, in the month of June of that year. While undergoing his trial, and afterwards, he threatened vengeance against the neighborhood where the crime was committed, and against a Mrs. Miller in particular, who had been the principal witness against him. Shortly after his imprisonment, he succeeded in breaking jail, and was not seen for some time, till early in the morning, on Monday, October 23d, he was seen to cross the bridge over Raquette river, near the line of Pierrepont. On Wednesday morning, following, Mrs. Miller was left by her husband in the act of rising from bed, while he went some distance from home to get fire at a neighbor's. On his return she was not in the house, and her shoes and parts of her clothing being left he supposed that she was not far distant. Nothing more was seen of her, and her absence during the day, became a subject of anxiety, which increased till the whole country, far and near was rallied, and a general search begun, which continued several days, and at length given up in despair of finding any trace of the absent one.

On Friday night several houses and barns in the vicinity, were burned, evidently by an incendiary, and on Saturday morning following, the jail bird was seen to recross the bridge, of Raquette river. Suspicion rested on B——, who was followed up and arrested at Carthage, having in his possession a stolen rifle. Nothing but suspicion resting upon him, in relation to the abduction and arson, he was tried for the theft, and sent to states prison, where he died. On the following spring, a woman's head, was found some distance from a headless body, in the woods about three miles above the village of Parishville, which were identified as those of Mrs. Miller, who in all probability had been brutally murdered from a fiendish revenge, by the ruffian who had afterwards set fire to his own house, and another which sheltered his wife and children.

Parishville was surveyed by Joseph Crary, in the fall of 1809. The village was surveyed into a plat, by Sewall Raymond, in 1812. It is located on St. Regis river, at a point where that river is crossed by the old St.

SEPTEMBER SONG

JERRY BUSHEY

Summer is gone. Winter waits patiently. The older you get, the quicker time passes. How can our summers have passed so quickly?

Set your spiritual life in order, now.

Do it at church. Do it soon. There is always time to ask forgiveness.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

With Sympathy

I'm sorry I wasn't here for her service. I stopped by to see her on Saturday the day before I left for Oregon, and I understand
she passed away on Monday.
I was gone ten days and the following Sunday saw Avis
+ Orren Howard + asked about her. and they told me.
Got your phone number from Don's wife.
Dorothy was fortunate to have such a caring family +
I know she appreciated all of you. She was a fine lady + I always enjoyed seeing her. Was able to stop by almost every week while she was in Antioch.
Hope to see you some day.

Dear Betty, Ed and family

May these few words of comfort
Somehow help you realize That others
share your sorrow
And deeply sympathize.

My deepest sympathy.
We shall truly miss Dorothy but now she is at rest.

Lovingly,

sumpsic and Moose rivers, the latter of which passes through a corner of the town. Along its borders are a few excellent farms, but no sites for mills. Near the center of the town there is quite a mountain-ridge, which somewhat divides the business. Here is also a small pond, from which issues Pond brook. In the eastern part of the township is an excellent quarry of granite.

In 1880 Kirby had a population of 398 souls. In 1886 it had six school districts and five common schools, employing eleven female teachers, to whom was paid an average weekly salary, including board, of $4.39. There were eighty-six scholars, five of whom were attending private schools. The entire income for school purposes for the year was $754.75, while the total expenditures were $738.98, with Miss N. A. Russell, superintendent.

The exact date of the first settlement made here is not known. Theophilus Grant and Phineas Page removed thither about 1792, locating near the town line, adjacent to St. Johnsbury. In 1800 Jonathan Leach came into the northern part of the town, then called Burke Tongue, and cut his first tree. He was soon joined by Josiah Joslin, Jude White, Jonathan Lewis, Ebenezer Damon, Asahel Burt, Antipas Harrington, and others, mostly from Massachusetts and New Hampshire. Mr. Leach made his first "pitch" in the town of Burke—purchasing a lot of land near the center of that town. While absent, however, engaged in removing his family from Massachusetts to their new home, the proprietors obtained a new draught of the town, bringing his number some five miles to the southward of the spot where he had commenced clearing, in an unbroken wilderness. Procuring, on his return, the assistance of a neighbor as a guide, he started out in quest of his number, which, after some difficulty, he succeeded in finding. In this new location he commenced his labors, in the month of April, 1800. He erected, at once, a log house, though, as the reader may readily imagine, "under difficulties," inasmuch as he was destitute both of shingles and boards, not to mention numerous other articles usually deemed indispensable in convenient and successful house-building. Into this rude structure, and while its gable-ends were still open, he moved his family, consisting of a wife and two small children. Addressing himself now to clearing away the forest about him and preparing the soil for cultivation, he succeeded the first year in raising a sufficient amount of grain to meet the wants of his family. By another year, without the aid of a team, he had subdued enough of the forest to gather in 150 bushels of wheat. By the third year, he had put up a framed barn—the building in which was taught the first school and held the first religious meeting in town. The first saw-mill in town, however, was built by Mr. Leach.

The town was organized on the 8th of August, 1807, and on the 29th of the same month the first town-meeting was called to elect town officers. Selah Howe was chosen moderator; Jonathan Lewis, town clerk, which office he held seventeen years; Benjamin Easterbrooks, Joel Whipple and Arunah Burt, selectmen; Philomen Brown, constable; and Josiah Joslin, town representative.

VIRGINIA

CAPITAL, RICHMOND - STATE 1788 - (10TH)

The colonization of the North American continent in modern times began with the arrival of three boatloads of English immigrants in May, 1607 on the northeast shore of the James River in Virginia, on the site of present-day Jamestown.

One of the leaders was Captain John Smith, a daring adventurous fellow with an inquisitive mind who had been in many tight situations on the outskirts of civilization. With a score of companions, he sailed into several of the many bays and river openings along the zigzagging east coast, and thus became acquainted with the lay of the land.

Having done nothing to provide food for the winter, more than half of the colony succumbed from illness and lack of nourishing food.

The summer of 1608 brought them new supplies from England and 120 more immigrants.

In the fall of 1608 the colony of 130 or 140 persons was augmented by the arrival of seventy more immigrants in the third expedition to Virginia.

At the beginning of the winter of 1609 the colony consisted of 490 persons. When the spring of 1610 arrived there were only 60 persons left in the colony.

Determined to return to England, the group embarked. The ship was coming out of the mouth of the James River when Virginia bound ships under the command of Lord Delaware came in sight. Against their own judgment, the disgruntled colonists were persuaded to return to their abandoned homes.

Early in 1610 more food and additional colonists arrived from England.

Virginia became a royal colony in 1624. From then until 1776 when it announced its independence it was in almost constant trouble with the Crown or its representatives. Mainly, lle and Vicinity, diaries of Elisha Risdon and Artemas was the first I cannot say. Nothing is left of the habitation now.

SIMEON YOUNG lived a little west on the south side in a log cabin. He was followed by Porter Pierce and he by Asa Murray.

ALBERT S. HARRAN took the next tract west on south side in 1834, where he built a log house and later a frame one. It passed to his son John A., and from him to Arthur Sampier, who now owns it. John A. Harran some thirty years ago bought the Hopkins farm on the south side of the road in Hopkinton village. He was a large, intelligent man and in every way a good neighbor and citizen. He suddenly died in his home in the summer of 1902.

DAVID FISK had a log house across the road from Mr. Harran. George Wilkinson, who was a tailor, lived there after Mr. Fisk. His daughter Hannah married Sumner Sweet of Nicholville. His other children were Martha, who married Mr. Alonzo Rhoades; William of Nicholville, and George, who was lame and died; Mary, who married Porter Pierce; Harriet, brought up by Dr. Sprague, married a Mr. Williams of Vermont. Mr. Harran bought the farm.

JOHN LEACH, father of David, took a tract in 1835 next west of Mr. Harran on south side, where he had a log house, all trace of which has gone.

SAMUEL CLARK had a log house on the north side and a little west of John Leach. The Naylor family lived there after Mr. Clark, though Mr. Naylor only came now and then. They were followed by Rufus Greene, who, I learn from the records, took title. He had a large family of bright children. They were, so far as I learn, William, Ira, Jane, who married Darius E. Kent; Mary, who married John Leach, Jr.; Robert and Melvin. David Leach acquired the farm and lived there till his recent death. It is now held by his widow, with Carlos Colton in charge.

RUFUS GREENE came from ——, Vt., and took the tract next west of John Leach on the south side. His wife was Jane Wood, and they had nine children: viz., Pliny, who died in California; Jane, who married Darius E. Kent in 1842; Melville, who died at Racine, Wis.; William, Lucius,
